

is One, who can do all things? We say He is Almighty.

If we see a grand House, what do we feel sure about its Architect? That he must be a great and clever man.

When, therefore, we see this beautiful world, what do we feel as to its Maker? That He is Almighty.

What are we told about His care about even little things? That the hairs of our head are all numbered, and that not a sparrow falls to the ground without the Father.

Give a passage of Scripture to shew that God made Heaven and Earth? In the beginning God created the Heaven and the Earth. (Gen. i. 1.)

FREDERICTON CATHEDRAL.

A True Cathedral in Canada.

Following up our Bishop's Sermon, printed in our last month's issue, on what a Cathedral should really be to its Diocese, we now give an instance of a true Cathedral, not in the Old Country, but within the borders of the Dominion of Canada. Almost every Diocese has what is called a Cathedral, but in almost every instance, when we come to examine into their origin and history, we find that these so-called Cathedrals were erected by subscription, that they are to all intents and purposes mere Parish Churches with Church-Wardens, Vestries and Pews-rents, and that they only differ from other Parish Churches by being larger, and by the fact that the Bishops are
