

Cod Liver Oil at any time is not a pleasant thing to take but in the hot summer months it is particularly obnoxious for many reasons known to you.

Gaduphos

on the other hand represents all the active medicinal properties found in the best grade of Cod Liver Oil and Gaduphos is readily assimilated and agrees with the most delicate stomach.

Then too, the Cod Liver Extract in Gaduphos is combined with a liberal proportion of Glycerophosphates.

Doesn't it appeal to you then that Gaduphos is a most serviceable nutritive, alterative and nerve tonic and just what you would wish to order for run down nervous conditions and convalescents?
