

ST. GEORGE'S LITERARY AND MUSICAL SOCIETY.

Once again are we indebted to Mrs. H. C. Osborne for her kindness in arranging and organizing another most delightful evening's entertainment in connection with the above society. It would be almost impossible to mention adequately each item in so excellent a program, which was literally without a weak spot, but we must mention the very delightful songs and recitations of Mrs. Osborne, given with all her accustomed naturalness and verve. Miss Maude Cowan too, sang with great sweetness of expression and obtained a well merited encore. Miss Rachel Gwyn's highly cultivated voice was well heard in the selections which she rendered with unusual accuracy and purity of tone. To these ladies with Mr. Wyley Grier, Mr. Landau, Mr. Paul Hahn and Miss Huston, who is a princess of accompanists, we tender our very grateful thanks. The financial results, owing to Mrs. Osborne bearing herself a large proportion of the expenses, are most satisfactory and will be divided between the Woman's Auxiliary and the St. Agatha's Guilds.
