NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.
1873.

Now, as heretofore, THE TRIBUNE strives to be first of all and preeminently a news paper.

France a Republic—England and Germany gradually permeated with Republican ideas—Spain swaying in the nerveless grasp of a ruler too good for a King and too weak for a Republican, who is unable to govern the great island that blocks the entrance to our Gulf of Mexico, and equally unable to give it up—the German-speaking peoples agitated by a new Protestantism, separating from the See of Rome on the dogma of Papal Infallibility and assuming to recognize the "Old Catholics"—the whole Continent pervaded by the intellectual ferment that comes of the conflict between old ideas, philosophical, theological, material, and the advance of physical Science—Russia and Great Britain running a race for the final gains that shall determine Asiatic pre-eminence—China seeming ready to abandon her advances and reclose her half opened gates—Japan abolishing feudalism and inviting Western civilization to translate Western commerce to enrich her long hidden empire—such are phases of the news from abroad which the mails ever daily bearing to us. With able and trusted correspondents in the leading capitals, and wherever great changes are in progress, THE TRIBUNE aims, at whatever cost, to lay before its readers the most prompt, complete and popular presentation of these diverse and conflicting movements, through all of which, as it fondly trusts, the toiling masses are everywhere struggling up toward larger recognition and a brighter future.

At home the struggle for freedom seems over. The last slave has long been a citizen; the last opposition to emancipation, enfranchisement, equal civil rights, has formally been abandoned. Italy, North or South, is such a result of the result of the War for the Union; all declare that these results must never be undone; and, with a whole people thus united on the grand platform of All Rights for All, whereto our bloody struggle, and the prolonged civil contests that followed, have led us, the Republic closes the records of the letter, but the best and most important of progressive Art, based on natural sciences.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE, now more than thirty years old, has endeavored to keep up with the progress of the age in improvement and enterprise. It devotes a large share of its columns to Agriculture as the most essential and general of human pursuits. It employs the ablest and most successful cultivators to set forth in brief clear essays their practical views of the Farmer's work; gathers from every source agricultural news, the reports of the latest experiments, the stories of the latest successes and failures, and whatever may tend to one's better Agriculture, and to commend it as the first and most important of progressive Art, based on natural sciences.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE appeals also to Teachers Students, and persons of inquiring minds, by the character of its literary contents, which include reviews of all the works proceeding from the master minds of the old or the new World, with liberal extracts from those of especial interest. Imaginative literature also claims attention, but in a subordinate degree. "Home Interests" are discussed weekly by a lady specially qualified to instruct and interest her own sex, and the younger portion of the other. No country is more eagerly sought or treated with greater average profit than hers. The News of the Day, elucidated by brief comments, is so condensed that no reader can deem it diffuse, while given sufficiently in detail to satisfy the wants of the average den. Selections are regularly made from the extensive correspondence of THE DAILY TRIBUNE from every country, and its editorials of more permanent value are here reproduced in short. THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE commends itself to millions, by ministering to their intellectual wants more fully than they are met by any other journal, while its regular reports of the Cattle, Country Produce, and other Markets, will, of themselves save the farmer who regularly notes them far more than his journal's price.

For the family circle of the cultured farmer or artisan, THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE has no superior, as is proved by the hundreds of thousands who, having read it from childhood, still cherish and enjoy it in the prime and on the down hill of life. We respectfully urge those who know its worth to commend THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE to their friends and neighbors, as we prefer it to clubs at price which barely pay the cost of paper and press-work.

HARTY CONSUMPTION CURED BY FELLOWS HYPOPHOSPHITES.
CARBONAD, NEWFOUNDLAND, Jan. 3, 1871.
MR. JAMES I. FELLOWS.
DEAR SIR: I came to this country in May, 1869. I found a countryman of mine laboring under some of the worst of the lungs. I recommended your Syrup, tried at the Druggists in Harbor Grace, but they thought I was inventing the name at their expense. However, in April, 1870, Mr. Edgar Joyce, a crick connoisseur, told me that he was unable to walk across the room, having no appetite, pains in the left side, nervous system, unstrung, dry, hacking cough, &c. Fortunately I learned that your Syrup could be obtained at Mr. Deakin's, in St. John's, and immediately procured some (about one to W. H. Thompson who ordered a supply from you at once). This was Tuesday afternoon; at night he took the prescribed dose, and in the morning he described the very results amplified on the wrapper. His appetite soon began to return, and a voracious one it was; too; the dry, hacking cough changed into loose but violent attacks, finally disappearing altogether; pains left his side, his hand assured its usual steadiness, and before he finished ten bottles his health was quite restored, and to-day he is as well as the best. The name of your Syrup is to be found on our streets; and it is the opinion of all, had he not been fortunate in getting your valuable Syrup of Hypophosphites, he would now be in his grave.

So happened to be in W. H. Thompson's the day your first shipment arrived, and took at once four bottles to the Labrador, which he was very anxious to do, but had no occasion to use them himself. No other medicine will he ever prescribe, recommend, or give, but yours.

GOOD THINGS

GOOD THINGS will address itself to the young of all ages, from the little beginner, who can just read a picture, to the big boys and girls who study at the desk or in front of the library; and so onwards up to the veteran, after all their learning, turn to the children for a fresher, wider, and after all their work, sit in the shady corner and play the old games over again in their heads. "GOOD THINGS" hopes, as a periodical, to have its margins well thumbed and spotted, and when the binder has rimmed, how and made it fit for the library, the volume will try for a fixed place there in good company. The avers of a multitude of asserted "goodies" cannot be put into a prospectus; but

WILL SEND FOR ITSELF.
TERMS.—Yearly Subscription, $2.00. Single Number 25 cents, with Lippincott's Magazine $5.50. Liberal Clubbing Rates. Specimen Numbers mailed, postage paid, to any address, on receipt of 20 cents.

THE FIRST OF JUVENILE PERIODICALS

Will continue to merit the claim of its titles to be the "handsomest illustrated paper in the world." New portraits of eminent men equal to those already given of Beecher, Epes, Love, Mason, and others, are in preparation. "Religious war" at home and abroad, social and domestic life, scenery, this and other lands, events of the day, are among the topics which will be illustrated in the best manner by art artists as Darley, Herriek, Head, Dixon, and others. Each number of the paper will contain seven or more finely executed engravings.

In the literary department, Dr. C. S. Robinson, whose oriental sketches have been an acceptable feature of the paper the present year, will furnish a new series, descriptive of life and customs in the East. Our conclusion of John S. C. Abbott's fascinating "History of William the Conqueror," other historical sketches from the same masterly pen will be forthcoming. S. E. Todd will give us designs of medium-priced houses, and show how to build them cheaply. Contributions may also be expected from Rev. Dr. Theodora L. Cuyler, Howard Crosby, J. G. Crutcher, Cyrus Hamlin, J. E. Rankin, Prof. H. M. Baird and W. C. Wilkinson, Jacob Abbott A. L. Noble, Mrs. E. L. Baers, Mrs. A. E. Hart, Mrs. M. E. Miller, Mrs. M. A. Denison, and other popular writers.
