THE THREE REFORMATIONS, LUTHERAN-ROMAN-ANGLICAN; BY WALTER FARQUHAR HOOK, D. D., VICAR OF LEEDS.

"You can easily conceire, that when any one stands on middle point between two others, who are, with respect to him, strictly equidistant, he must from the inevitable laws of perspective appear to both, not to be in the middle, but comparatively near the opposite party."—ALEXANDER KNOX. WITH AN INTRODUCTION BY REV. WILLIAM SHELTON, D.D., Rector of St. Paul's Church, Buffalo.

To be had at the Church Depository, No. 5, King Street West, Coronto. Price 18. 3d. The great popularity of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry has induced some mercenary individuals in various parts of the country to compound quack nostrums for the purpose of deceiving the public and raising money on the well-earned reputation of this truly valuable medicine. The interests of the proprietor cannot suffer, if he can but keep the public informed against the false preparations attempted to be palmed off in the name of the Wild Cherry; for certain it is that no medicine ever proved so efficacious in a long catalogue of the most common diseases which "human flesh is heir to." or preserved the health and life of so many thousands of our race as has Dr. Wistar's Balsam. Mr. Seth W. Fowle, druggist No. 138, Washington-street, is the sole proprietor of the original receipt for the inauufacture of the genuine medicine, and supplies both at wholesale and retail, and of whom, also agencies can be obtained.

CORRIGENDA in the Account of the Bishop of Montreal's Circuit, published in the issue of the 2nd inst. First column, in the second, and again the third, paragraph, for 'Elliot' read Lilliot.

First column, fourth paragraph, for 'snow-tract' read snow-track. Second column, second paragraph, for 'Belzerage' read Belzer Range.

Third column, third line, for 'conducted by clergymen' read conducted by gentlemen.
Third column, in the mention of the Priest ordained, for

'éleve' read élève.

Fourth column, last paragraph, for 'four confirmations to confirm 171 persons' read thirteen confirmations to confirm 171 persons. We could not insert "E.'s" communication without laying ourselves open to the certain prospect of having a demand made upon us from the opposite quarter to publish likewise the document upon which he comments,—a demand which we could not well refuse, but should be very unwilling to concede. The views of "E." meet very unwilling to concede. The views of "E." meet with our entire concurrence, and his statements of facts are quite to the point; but it would be most injudicious, we conceive, to begin a discussion at the present moment when the principal party interested in it is not on the spot to observe its progress. "E." will understand us; and if he will allow us to keep his letter, it may prove useful hereafter.

The letter on the "Gorham case" suggests a measure which would require very serious consideration. Our opinions as to the doctrinal errors of Mr. Gorham are altogether those of our correspondent; but we cannot say that we are prepared to accept the plan which he proposes as the best way of expressing them. We will forward his letter, however, to "J. B.," to whose judgment our correspondent, we dare say, will be very ready
