LAST GREAT WORK. Just Published, uniform with FATHER FABER's other Works, Frice in Cloth 75 cls.; Cl. Gt. Edges, Sl 25.-By Mail, on receipt of the price in Gold, or P. O. Slamps. BETHLEHEM,

By Frederick William Faber, D. D. CONTENTS.

Chap. [-The Bosom of the Eternal Father.-Chap. II-The Cosom of Mary.-Chap. III-The Midnight Cave.-Chap. IV-The first Worshippers -Chap. V-The Infant God.-Chap. VI-Soul and body. - Chap. VII - Calvary before its Time. - Chap. VIII-Heaven Already .- Ohap. IX-The feet of the Eternal Father.

The Title and Table of Contents suggests the character of this work, which the Rev. Author des-ignates in the following Dedication: "This Treatise on the Sacred Infancy of our Most Dear and Blessed Redeemer, is laid with the most Tender Devotion, the most Humble Confidence, and the most Reverential Worship, at the Feet of Saint Joseph, the Spouse of Mary, and the Great Foster-Father of our Lord."

The name of the distinguished Author, whose Works have already become so popular in England well as on th Continent, where and this country, as they have been translated, and met with an immense sale, is sufficient invite attention to this past production of his genius, learning and piety. "Like Father Faher's other Works, it abounds in passages of rare learning, exquisite beauty, graceful imagery and most tender piety. To at least many of the 50,000 who have read his other Works, particulary his "All for Jesus" this last production of his genius, and still more of his deep, active love for that same ever blessed Saviour of men, will be a more than welcome visitor; an offering better than treasures of gold and silver. If any were at this moment, when thrones are crumbling, and nations are falling to pieces or being humbled to the dust, it is in the stable, and by the crib of the Babe of Bethlehem, that the prond and the wise of the world may learn the worth of the saying: 'Vanity of vanities, and all is vanity; except to love God, and to serve Him alone."

One of the most eloquent and distinguished clergymen in the United States, in writing an Introduction to one of Futher Fuber's Works, says: "We turn to this last work of the Rev. Dr. Faber with sentiments of gratitude to heaven, and hope for its abundant blessing on the teachings of such a guide, which our most earnest language would but faintly express. If the power to conceive and convey to others they are prepared to sell to the Trade, Religious Inthe sublime, and at the same time, the most practical truths that can interest the human mind, be a title to (the homage of men, then has Father Faber established for himself a claim, which no length of years nor change of circumstances can efface. Few writers since the days of St. Francis de Sales, have made more Christian hearts bow in loving adoration before our tabernaoles than the author of 'All for Jesus,' 'The Blessed Sacrament,' Growth in Holiness,' &c:

Archbishop. The second edition from the press of Mr. H. Dessnin, Malines, is comprised in two volumes.

It contains the matter of the former edition, which was in three volumes, and is considerably improved and enlarged. Constant reference is made to the laws and usages of our country, which must necessarily direct and modify the application of moral principles laid down by European divines. The relations of master and servant, which are scarcely touched on in foreign treatise, are here developed and defined. The various contracts in use among us are explained, and the respective obligations of the parties are discussed. In many other matters of practice, direction is afforded to the Missionary and Confessor, which is particularly adapted to local circumstances, inasmuch as the general discipline of the Church is mitigated by special concessions, or Messrs. Murphy & Co. The whole work, formerly consisting of four columns, is now reduced to three, although considerable additions have been made to it; including an Elaborate Defence of the Dogma of the Immaculate Conception, and a Catalogue of the Fathers, and Ecclesiastical Writers, with an accurate discrimination of their genuine works, from others that have passed under their names. This work appears under the especial sanction of the Cardinal Arch-a very high estimate of its merits. It is issued in a very near style, in three volumes, of about 500 pages double column, 8vo., at the very low price of $2 per volume. This edition, though much enlarged, is re-
