

TIME TABLE EXAMINATIONS, 1917

Before Candidates at any Examination begin writing on their first paper, the Presiding Examiner (at 8.45 to 9.00 or at 13.45 to 14.00) shall read and explain to them the regulations

| Date                 | Hours of Ex.              | Grade IX.                  |  | Grade X.                           |  | Grade XI.                                       |  | Grade XII.               |  |
|----------------------|---------------------------|----------------------------|--|------------------------------------|--|-------------------------------------------------|--|--------------------------|--|
|                      |                           | Arithmetic                 |  | History                            |  | Poet. Literature A.                             |  | Poet. Literature B.      |  |
| Tuesday, June 12th   | 9.00—12.0014.00—17.00 | Writing(14.00—14.30)   |  | Literature                         |  | Latin Grammar                                   |  | Hist. of Eng. Literature |  |
| Wednesday, June 13th | 9.00—12.0014.00—17.00 | English Grammar            |  | (Teachers' Option)                 |  | French Literature                               |  | Composition              |  |
| Thursday, June 14th  | 9.00—12.00                | Music                      |  | Latin Authors                      |  | Rhet. & Prose Literature                        |  | Chemistry                |  |
| Friday, June 15th    | 14.00—17.00               | Botany                     |  | Physics                            |  | Physics                                         |  | Physics                  |  |
|                      | 9.00—12.00                | Spelling(9.00—11.00)   |  | British History                    |  | French Composition                              |  | Geometry                 |  |
| Monday, June 18th    | 14.00—17.00               | (Teacher's Option)         |  | French Authors                     |  | Additional English A.(French Literature A.) |  | Algebra                  |  |
|                      | 9.00—12.00                | Composition                |  | French Grammar                     |  | Additional English B.(French Literature B.) |  | Trigonometry             |  |
| Tuesday, June 19th   | 14.00—17.00               | German Grammar             |  | Bookkeeping(9.00—11.00)        |  | History                                         |  |                          |  |
|                      | 9.00—12.00                | Geography(14.00—16.00) |  | Drawing                            |  |                                                 |  |                          |  |
| Wednesday, June 20th | 14.00—17.00               | Can. Hist. & Civics        |  | Mental Arithmetic(14.00—14.20) |  |                                                 |  |                          |  |
| Thursday, June 21st  | 9.00—12.00                |                            |  |                                    |  |                                                 |  |                          |  |
| Friday, June 22nd    | 14.00—17.00               |                            |  |                                    |  |                                                 |  |                          |  |
|                      | 9.00—12.00                |                            |  |                                    |  |                                                 |  |                          |  |

NOTE.—Book-keeping, as specified in Grade XI., is for students who have Matriculation and desire to secure standing in the Teachers' Course