RECEUIL DES TRAITES 1944

No. 74

N° 21

OTTAWA, July 22, 1944.

Sir,

In reply to your note of July 19, 1944, No. 171, I have the honour to inform you that the Canadian Government has renewed for a period of six months from July 26, 1944, the permission granted to Pan American Airways to operate over British Columbia on its service between Seattle (Washington) and Juneau (Alaska). This permission is subject to the same conditions as are set out in your note of January 26, 1944, No. 9.

2. The Canadian Government considers that the question of re-opening of Comox and Port Hardy should be deferred until such time as the general arrangement relating to air transport services between Canada and the United States comes up for review.
