

discriminating against imports of Canadian spruce-pine-fir dimension lumber by assessing an 8% tariff against Canadian imports, and allowing U.S. imports duty free. Canada is seeking to protect its access to a growing market and related Canadian jobs.