

3. The aeronautical authorities of the Parties may require, for information purposes, the filing of schedules or timetables not later than ten (10) days, or such lesser period as those authorities may require, prior to the operation of new or revised services. If the aeronautical authorities of a Party require filings for information purposes, they shall minimize the administrative burden of filing requirements and procedures on the designated airlines of the other Party.

ARTICLE 15

Airline Representatives

1. Each Party shall permit:
 - (a) the designated airlines of the other Party, on the basis of reciprocity, to bring into and to maintain in its territory their representatives and commercial, operational and technical staff as required in connection with the operation of the agreed services; and
 - (b) these staff requirements, at the option of the designated airlines of the other Party, to be satisfied by their own personnel or, by using the services of any other organization, company or airline operating in its territory and authorized to perform such services for other airlines.
2. Each Party shall:
 - a) with the minimum of delay and consistent with its laws and regulations, grant the necessary employment authorizations, visitor visas or other similar documents to the representatives and staff referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article; and
 - b) facilitate and expedite the requirement of employment authorizations for personnel performing certain temporary duties not exceeding ninety (90) days.

ARTICLE 16

Ground Handling

1. Each Party shall permit the designated airlines of the other Party when operating in its territory:
 - a) on the basis of reciprocity, to perform their own ground handling, and, at their option, to have ground handling services provided in whole or in part by any agent authorized by its competent authorities to provide such services; and
 - b) to provide ground handling services for other airlines operating at the same airport in the territory of the other Party.
