

our doors; to be able to move as we choose from place to place and from job to job; to take a pride in our work and to feel that our own families and others too are each year able to lead a fuller life. And we are determined, at this time, to build up our united strength so that we may have confidence that we can protect our free way of life against any challenge. In this way we of the Atlantic community will go forward, not alone but with our brothers now beyond our borders, looking to the day when "nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn way any more".
