

Offices under the Crown; holding of, a disqualification for the house of Commons, 130, 134; acceptance of, vacates seat, 130, 138, 139; members holding certain offices in the ministry, may be re-elected, 130, 135.

Official Reports of Debates. See Hansard.

Ontario Liquor License Act; 681 et seq.

Orders of the day; rules arranging business—in the Senate, 250; in the Commons, 251-252; calling of questions, and orders, 252; arrangement of bills, &c., in Commons, 253; precedence to special orders, 255; strict adherence to order paper necessary, 256; undisposed of, 257; place of motions on order paper, 257-258; motion to read, to supersede a question, 335-336; amendment thereto, 338; speaking on calling of orders, 359.

Order, questions of; interrupt debate, 358.

Ouimet, Mr.; his opinion on a question of legislative jurisdiction, 603.

PAIRS; system of (in the Senate), 389; (in the Commons), Ib.

Palgrave, Mr.; clerk assistant of the English Commons; his explanations of English mode of putting amendments to motions, 327 n.

Papineau, Mr. Speaker; his resignation, 163 n.; governor-general refuses to approve of his appointment, 229.

PARLIAMENT; constitution of Parliament of Canada, consisting of the Queen, Senate, and House of Commons, 56, 59; duration of each (since 1867), 60, 61; its legislative powers, 81, 100; number of members in the two houses, 105, 111; parliamentary franchise, 113; dual representation, 124-125; independence of, 128, 137; powers of expulsion and suspension, 148, 154, 201, 202; privileges and powers, 186, 199; mode of summoning, 220-221; meeting, 221; election of speaker, 224; prorogation, 236-237; adjournment, 238; effect of proroguing, Ib.; dissolution, 239-240; not determined by demise of the Crown, Ib.; has jurisdiction over marriage and divorce, 668.

PARLIAMENT—continued.

See also British North America Act, House of Commons, Members, Privileges and Powers of Parliament, Senate.

Parliamentary Agents; 622.

PARLIAMENTARY INSTITUTIONS IN CANADA; ORIGIN AND GROWTH OF.

I. Canada under the French Regime: No legislative assemblies in French Canada previous to conquest, 1-2; nature of first government, 2; functions of governor, Ib.; of intendant, 2-3; constitution of supreme, afterwards superior, council, 3-4; no semblance of municipal government, 4; feudal tenure, Ib.; whole system of administration, centred in the king, 5 n.

II. Government from 1760 to 1774: Terms of capitulation in 1760, 5-6; treaty of Paris, 6; military government for three years, Ib.; proclamation of 1763, establishing system of government in Quebec, 6, 7; no assemblies called, 8; unsettled state of the country, 8-9; uncertainty as to laws in force, Ib.

III. Quebec Act, 1774: Intervention of Parliament; charter of government, 9; opposition to the act in province, 10; details of new constitution, 11; legislative council established, 11, 12; inauguration of new constitution, 12-13; privy council formed, 13.

IV. Constitutional Act, 1791: Two provinces established, 18;