

Contents.—Part 1.

	PAGE
INTRODUCTION	XV

CHAP. I.—Objects of American Enterprise—Gold Hunting and Fur Trading—Their Effect on Colonization—Early French Canadian Settlers—Ottawa and Huron Hunters—An Indian Trading Camp— Coueurs des Bois or Rangers of the Woods—Their Roaming Life—Their Revels and Excesses—Licensed Traders—Missionaries—Trading Posts—Prim- itive French Canadian Merchant—His Estab- lishment and Dependants—British Canadian Fur Merchant—Origin of the Northwest Com- pany—Its Constitution—Its Internal Trade— A Candidate for the Company—Privations in the Wilderness—Northwest Clerks—North- west Partners—A Northwest Nabob—Feudal Notions in the Forests—The Lords of the Lakes—Fort William—Its Parliamentary Hall and Banqueting Room—Wassailing in the Wilderness	I
--	---

CHAP. II.—Rise of the Mackinaw Company—At- tempt of the American Government to Coun- teract Foreign Influence over the Indian
---	--

VOL. I.

APR 6 - 1972