LYRA, AND OTHER POEMS.

By ALICE CAREY. In one volume, 12mo, cloth, price 75 cts.

"Whether poetry be defined as the rhythmical creation of beauty, as passion or eloquence in harmonious numbers, or as thought and feeling manifested by processes of the imagination, Alice Carey is incontestably and incommensurably the first living American poetess—fresh, indigenous, national—rich beyond precedent in suitably and sensuous imagery—of the finest and highest qualities of feeling and such powers of creation as the Almighty has seen fit to bestow but rarely or in far-separated countries."—Boston Transcript.

"The genuine inspiration of poetic feeling, . . . replete with tenderness and beauty, earnestness and truthful simplicity, and all the attributes of a powerful imagination and vivid fancy. We know of no superior to Miss Carey among the female authors of this country."—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

"Alice Carey's book is full of beautiful thoughts: there is draught after draught of pure pleasure for the lover of sweet, tender fancies, and imagery which captivates while it enforces truth."—New York Courier and Inquirer.

"Lyra and other Poems, just published by Redfield, attracts everywhere, a remarkable degree of attention. A dozen of the leading journals, and many eminent critics, have pronounced the authoress the greatest poetess living."—New York Mirror.

mor and pathos, of the comedy and tragedy, of life in the country."—J. G. Whittier.

"Alice Carey has perhaps the strongest imagination among the women of this country. Her writtings will live longer than those of any other woman among us."—American Whig Review.

"Miss Carey's sketches are remarkably fresh and exquisite in delicacy, humor, and pathos. She is booked for immortality."—Home Journal.

DREAM-LAND BY DAY-LIGHT.

A Panorama of Romance. By CAROLINE CHESEBRO'. Illustrated by DARLEY.
One vol., 12mo., price $1.25. (Second edition.)

"We find in this volume unmistakable evidences of originality of mind, an almost superfluous depth of reflection for the department of composition to which it is devoted, a rare facility in seizing the multiform aspects of nature, and a still rarer power of giving them the form and hue of imagination, without destroying their identity."—Harper's Magazine.

"These simple and beautiful stories are all highly colored with an exquisite perception of natural beauty, with which is combined an appreciative sense of its relation to the highest moral emotions."—Albany State Register.

"Gladly do we greet this floweret in the field of our literature, for it is fragrant with sweet and bright with hues that mark it to be of Heaven's own planting."—Courier and Enquirer.

"There is a depth of sentiment and feeling not ordinarily met with, and some of the noblest faculties and affections of man's nature are depicted and illustrated by the skillful pen of the authoress."—Churchman.

ISA, A PILGRIMAGE.

By CAROLINE CHESEBRO'. One volume, 12mo, price, $1.00. Second edition.

"The Pilgrimage is fraught throughout with scenes of thrilling interest—romantic, yet possessing a naturalness that seems to stamp them as real; the style is flowing and easy, chaste and beautiful."—Troy Daily Times.

"Miss Chesebro is evidently a thinker—she skims not the mere surface of life, but plunges boldly into the hidden mysteries of the spirit, by which she is warranted in making her startling revelations of human passion."—Christian Freeman.

"There comes out in this book the evidence of an inventive mind, a cultivated taste, an exquisite sensitivity, and a deep knowledge of human nature."—Albany Argus.

"There is no one who will doubt that this is a courageous and able work, displaying genius and depth of feeling, and striking at a high and noble aim."—N. Y. Evangelist.

"There is a fine vein of tenderness running through the story, which is peculiarly one of passion and sentiment."—Arthur's Home Gazette.
