Some Press Opinions.

- "MR. NURSEY'S well-sifted facts are a valuable acquisition to trade literature."—The Mail and Empire, Toronto.
- "WALTER R. NURSEY knows how to make an attractive book. As a writer he has great descriptive talent."—The Sentinel, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.
- "No breezier championship of the Jersey breed was ever undertaken than that of W. R. NURSEY in the 'ROMANCE OF MERRY MAIDEN.'"—Gentleman Farmer.
- "IN 'ESCANABA, THE IRON PORT OF THE WORLD,' MR. NURSEY has had an opportunity of showing that he is a very able as well as a most interesting writer."—Iron, London.
- "MR. NURSEY is a prodigious worker, and as a writer of historical, statistical and descriptive matter, has a most engaging style."—Iron Trade Review, Cleveland, Ohio.
- "In descriptive writing WALTER R. NURSEY has few equals. It gives him full scope for his original talent."—Sun, Winnipeg.
- "MR. NURSEY is a graceful as well as a graphic writer, and entertaining even in statistics, relieving what would be otherwise prosaic reading by vivid pen-pictures."—News, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.
- "MR. NURSEY is a very clever story-writer, and in his 'ROMANCE OF MERRY MAIDEN' gives evidence of a considerable knowledge of agriculture. . . . A good plot and a wholesome one."—Farmers' Voice, Chicago.
- "MR. NURSEY is an able writer, a careful statistician, and a shrewd business man."—Realty Record, Milwaukee.
