Instal Pari-Mutuels and Eliminate Undesirables

OTTAWA, Sept. 18.—Since the murder of the bookmaker's clerk, Rubenstein, in this city a few weeks ago, a strong opposition to the bookies at Connaught Park track has developed locally. It is felt generally here that the bookmakers bring with them a gang of track followers not wanted in Ottawa, and that the best way to rid the city of these undesirable is to install the pari-mutuels. It is a known fact that there are seen in less numbers where the iron men are located. The race-track followers of the city are not in favor of the machines, a majority of them having attended meetings at Blue Bonnets and seen the pari-mutuels work, but a great many of the directors of the local track think them the best solution of the betting problem. Several of the directors have given out the information that the machines will be installed here next spring, probably a couple of them being put in as a trial.

PIGEON RACING

HERE IS ONE GAME ENGLISHMEN SEE SUPERIOR

Harry Vardon and Wilfrid Reid Lead the Field by Two Strokes in First Half of U. S. Golf Tournament at Brookline.

BROOKLINE, Mass., Sept. 18.—Playing golf on a cold, sedgy day in America, two of the trio of English professionals, Harry Vardon and Wilfrid Reid, led the field in the first half of the nineteenth annual open tournament of the United States Golf Association here today, and at dusk led the field by a margin of two strokes.

Harry Vardon and Wilfrid Reid turned in cards of 147 for the first 36 holes. Edward Ray divided second place with Herbert Strong of the Inwood Club of Inverness, Scotland, and J. H. Barnes of Tacoma, Wash., were bracketed in third position with 149. After the leaders came a long line of professionals, broken here and there by the name of a prominent amateur.

Francis Ouimet has the honor of showing the way for the amateurs with a card of 151, which placed him in a tie with Willie Hoggan, Alex Ross and George Argent for fourth place. Louis Teller, the French pro, turned in 152 for the initial half of the championship play, which gave him fifth place in company with C. D. Thom of Shinnecock Hills. Fred Herreth, the Long Island amateur; Jack McDermott, present champion, and Jack Hutchinson divided the honors of sixth place with 153, while Jerome Traversa, the amateur champion, had to be satisfied with a card of 156.

C. R. Murray of Royal Montreal and George W. Cummins of Toronto turned in cards of 160, while Karl Kellner of Ottawa ended the day with a score of 163. In the midst of this sensational golfing, Edward Ray, the giant Englishman, stood out as the hero of the day's play, starting poorly on his morning round, he came back with a really wonderful afternoon round in 70, breaking the course record and lifting him from ninth to second place. His two countrymen, Harry Vardon and Reid, while two strokes better on the day's play, were far more consistent, and their work lacked the brilliant rally and thrill that caused Ray to be applauded as he belted by a gallery quick to recognize the courage and ability of the Englishman.

Weather conditions were perhaps more favorable to the invading pros from the British Isles than the entries from the States. It rained heavily until shortly before the starting hour, but fair ways and greens lost much of their keenness. Overhead leaden gray clouds blocked out the sun, and the air was heavy with humidity. The English players, with their long carries from the tee, gained an advantage over the amateurs, who were handicapped by the heavy turf.

Englishmen Get the Gallery. Vardon and Reid divided the early-day gallery between them, and the spectators were well repaid for their long journey around the course, for both played phenomenal golf at times.

Reid held the youngsters in check nearly all the way, and a better style of work-out could not be seen. He played with great ease and confidence, and his play was a marked similarity to that of the two leaders. He played with almost clock-like steadiness, equaling par or better on every hole, regardless of the difficulty of the hole, and he was a model of consistency. There was a difference of one stroke in the cards of the two Englishmen at the end of each nine holes, and the advantage in this respect was equally divided.

RUGBY GOSSIP

The Varsity squad put in their most useful workout of the season last night, and the midfields were given something to look at. Honorary Coach Dr. Wright kept the backs kicking and catching, and the wings had their first taste of the signal work.

It was an hour of real hard work, and as it was only the fourth turnout, it was surprising the speed that was displayed. Jack Maynard is in tip-top shape, and his passing and kicking was of mid-season form. Peter Campbell worked at the quarter job.

Cassels and Storms, the former F.M.C. men, are big boys with the needed speed and reach. Red McKenzie is going back, and will be a great asset to the team. The former F.M.C. player, Reame, the former Alto player, has been back, and will be a great asset to the team. The former Alto player, Reame, the former Alto player, has been back, and will be a great asset to the team.

Dodge Burkart made his initial appearance with T. R. & A. A. last night, and kicked the ball around for a couple of hours. Eddie Beaton and Hal Eberly were also on the job. Ted White has a lot of weight to take off, but he is coming round fast. Fenover, the former Winnipeg man, is out nightly.

Argonauts have lost a promising youngster in Pile, who broke an ankle at Wednesday night's practice. Pile was trying for a back-line job and showed considerable promise.

The first meeting of the Hamilton Rowing Club football section was held last evening, and any doubt about them having a team to put into the O.R.F.U. is a thing of the past, for the number of names they received last night, without counting the names they had received before, is sufficient to put one of the best teams on the field that has represented a senior O.R.F.U. team in this city. The following men signed their names and promised to turn out with the Rowing Club this season: J. Moore, E. Moore, E. Prellip, J. Burns, and several other noted players, who have been anxious to break into senior company for several years past.—Hamilton Times.

W. R. Marshall, one of Hamilton's greatest athletes, and a one-time famous footballer, has been asked to accept the position of manager, and with Dug Palmer as coach of the Hamilton Rowing Club senior O.R.F.U. team.

Judeans will hold a regular practice tonight at Technical at 8.30, and signal practice at club rooms at 8.30.

Billy Young, George Stuart and the other Tigers who could not make the trip were practicing daily at the cricket field.—Hamilton Herald.

TWO JOCKEYS DISCIPLINED. MONTREAL, Sept. 18.—The stewards ruled against two riders at Dover Park this afternoon. They ordered the badge of Jockey Denner taken up, denying him further privileges of the track at the same time told Jockey Ferguson not to receive any more mounts at the meeting. The case of these boys will be handed over to the C.R.A. to deal with.

The riding was in much better condition this afternoon than was looked for and the choice accounted for the popularity of the events.

FOUR CANADIANS LEFT FOR U. S. GOLF HONORS

Cumming, Keffer and the Two Murrys—Their Draw for Today.

BROOKLINE, Mass., Sept. 18.—(Staff Special.)—Just as a hydro planet means a tuning up before starting in any big race, so in golf the preliminary round of the first round of the championship match is a tune-up for the main event.

The two rounds which have been played in the U.S.G.A. open championship at Country Club here only seemed to warm the contestants to their task so that when they started in the first round of the championship match this morning they were well keyed up for the struggle.

This fact was well evidenced as the scores for the first round began to come in. The preliminary round was a tune-up for the main event.

FRANK BOGASH JR. ONCE MORE WINNER

Lord Dewey Lands Ten Thousand Dollar Stake—Six Races Decided.

DETROIT, Sept. 18.—Lord Dewey, winner of the Empire State trot last week at Syracuse, captured his second $10,000 race of the season today, when he took the Michigan Stake for 215 trotters, at the Grand Circuit races, from a field of seven in straight heats.

His victory was expected. So was that of Frank Bogash, Jr. in the 212 pace, with its purse of $5000. There were only four starters in the latter event, and the brown gelding again proved himself to be the class of this season's green paces. Lenta, Jr., generally his closest rival, tried hard but never seriously threatened.

Six events were completed. This was made necessary by the rain, which postponed yesterday's program and postponed yesterday's card. Only one event—the 220 pace, went to the limit of five heats. Homer Baughman, driven by Geers, finally won. It was Geers' first victory of the present meeting. The last heat was a struggle between the bay colt and John H., also winner of two heats, but Cox's horse weakened on the stretch and was passed by Lord Seymour.

The 214 pace was a romp for Princess Margaret, the favorite, who was followed in each heat by Zandibar. Dr. B. F. and Jones Gentry of a field of ten fought a merry struggle in the 206 pace. The third heat was the most thrilling of the day. Down the stretch, bunched, came seven of the horses, but never anybody's victory. Suddenly a streak of grey flashed to the front, maintained her lead to the judge's stand and won from Molly Darling, who just nosed out Jones Gentry. Lenta, Jr. had driven him his own way in the three-year-old trot. She won two straight heats, and in the second finished more than two lengths ahead of Frisco Lad. In the $10,000 race Reusens never threatened. Almost every time Geers attempted to drive him he broke. Twice in the last heat, when it appeared as though he might have a chance, he lost his stride.

Six races will probably be run tomorrow, in an effort to bring the meeting to a close.
