

Game is wild meats for food. I like a mutton-chop, a leg of lamb, a loin of veal, a sirloin beefsteak, pork ham, a rasher of bacon, sausage, tripe, or liver. We eat curd, cheese, cream, butter, etc. In our garden we have corn, peas, beans, onions, lettuce, carrots, squashes, celery, parsley, tomatoes, fruit. In our fields we raise wheat, maize, barley, oats, buckwheat, potatoes, turnips, carrots, etc.

21. Setting the Table.

(The teacher may use the names of his own pupils.)

Bertha, you may spread the cloth upon the table; Laura, bring the knives and forks; Caroline, the cups and saucers; Luella, carry the plates; Helen, the spoons; Louise, go to the drawer for the clean napkins; as soon as the water boils in the tea-kettle, Dick can pour it on the tea and coffee; Albert, go to the cellar for the cream, — do not spill it on the stairs; Minnie, bring the sauce; Harold, go quickly for the covered dishes for the oat-meal and potatoes; as soon as Charles has taken the roast-beef from the oven, you can thicken the gravy; William, place the chairs around the table; how nicely you have arranged the red and white celery, Edward!
