

PAGE.

SIONS.

Day, 291
 292
 War, 293
 294
 Public
 ter the 295
 ne Eve-296
 War, 300
 t apart
 Bless-
 ib.
 302
 day of 303
 304
 ib.
 306
 307
 ib.
 308
 309
 310
 Day, 311
 312
 Year, 313
 ll Ru-315
 316
 317
 318
 319
 hools, 321
 Cafe-324
 chiam 325
 ib.
 326
 ib.
 327

A Prayer to be used by one entrusted with the Education of Children,	320
A Child's Prayer, for better Ability to pray,	320
A Prayer that may be used for and with Prisoners,	ib.
that may be used with condemned Prisoners by those who visit them,	331
A Prayer for imprisoned Debtors,	332
A Prayer to be used by Debtors and all Persons Obligated by Contract or otherwise,	334
A Prayer to be used by a Prisoner for Debt,	335
before a Journey,	336
Two Prayers before a Journey, and two Thanksgivings after a Journey,	337
A Prayer for the safety of a person, or persons, going to Sea,	339
A Thanksgiving for a safe return from Sea,	ib.
A Prayer to be used by one engaged (or likely to be engaged) in a Lawsuit,	ib.
A Prayer before making a Will,	340
chiefly in Scripture Language, in which the several branches of the christian Temper are briefly enumerated,	341
The Meditation and Prayer of a Christian whose Heart is warmed by the prospects of Death,	342
A Prayer for the Troubled Soul,	343
for a Person under Affliction,	345
for a Person in a State of Poverty,	346
for Person under Doubts of the Lawfulness of any Action,	350
A Thanksgiving for Deliverance from any Trouble or Affliction either in Body or Mind,	351
A Prayer for the Protection of Angels,	352
for a right Use of the Means of Grace,	353
for a right Use of the Scriptures,	ib.
after reading the Scriptures,	354
for a right Use of our Time,	ib.
for a right Use of our Speech,	355
for the right Exercise of Zeal,	356
for Acquitting ourselves as we ought in our several Places and Relations,	ib.
A Prayer of Divine Assistance,	357
for Sincerity,	358
for a meek and quiet Spirit,	359
for Chastity,	360
for Temperance,	ib.
against Covetousness,	361
for Chastity,	ib.