

task—I should incur the charge of vanity and presumption. Permit me, therefore, Sir, in the plain and simple language of truth, to assure you of my gratitude, and more particularly, for being allowed to dedicate to you this humble effort of my pen.—With every sentiment of respect,

I have the Honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient, humble Servant,

J. C. MORGAN.