MISS CHINESE STUDENTS G. M. HENDERSON & CO.

Why Asia Must Be Civilized-Canadian Laymen to Raise $500,-000 During Coming Year.

Surprise that there were no Chinete students in the universities of Canada was expressed by Fletcher S. Brockman, national secretary of the Y. M. C. A. for China, at the celebration of the third anniversary of the laymen's missionary movement in St. James' Cathedral Parish House yesterday afternoon and evening.

At the conclusion of an inspiring address telling of the numerous conversions to Christianity of Chinese, not only among the poorer classes, but high officials, Mr. Brockman told of the great numbers of Chinese who were being educated in the universities of Chest Britain Germany. Russia and than all the thousands he has uttered in his behalf. There are some Republicans who really think he will do it, but nobody seems to want to bet on it.

being educated in the universities of Great Britain, Germany, Russia and other European educational centres, and the United States, but he found that no Chinese were studying in Canadian universities. Canada was doing a great work in the mission field, and Canadian universities had produced men who had gone to China and taken leading parts in the conversion of the heathen.

If the Chinese were awaking to a new era, which was undoubted, it was of manifest importance that the other nations should do their utmost to make friends with them. He thought it was quite right for Canada and the United States to keep out the ordinary Asiatics, but the leaders of the Asiatic race should be welcomed here as students of our civilization and seekers after our knowledge, and should be saturated with our civilization. And while here they should be encouraged to form ties of friendship which would never be broken. These ties would be of inestimable importance to the country in after years.

Mr. Brockman thought that it was imperative that the Christian nations should do their utmost to civilize Asia, as' it was for their own benefit.

"The reason Asia is where it is, is because it has drifted. We did not drift. Asia is not going to drift into a higher, but a lower, civilization if let alone. If we do not do something, the rulned Asia will drag the other nations with her. The day has passed when there can be a stench from the hundreds of millions of heathen in Cina, without affecting the nostrils of other countries. It is not whether we will do mission work. It is common business sense, even if there be not a particle of religion in it."

The notes struck by the Edinburgh conference were the notes of unity, reality and immediacy. "If we could get together and work together like we did for the eighteen months during which we were preparing for and holding that conference, we could always keep together," he said.

HOLD REGULAR SESSION

No Very Important Measures Under Discussion-C, H. Rust Looks Over Town.

NORTH TORONTO, Nov. 1 .- (Special).—To-night's meeting of the town acid that poisons the blood, inflames council was a short one, and the absence of two members, Messrs. Pears and Murphy, the former absent on his annual hunting trip, was in a measure, too, doubtless responsible for the early closing and adjournment taking place shortly after 10 o'clock aimost a record. The members present were: Mayor Brown and Councillors Muston, Howe, Reid and Lawrence.

One of the questions under dicussion was with respect to a letter received from the Inter-Urban Co., in which the latter wanted to know the grounds of opposition shown by the town to them, charging that they were at a loss to know why their tender had not been considered. Members made it very clear that one of the grounds at least was the fact that no franchise could be given for a longer period than one year in any event, and the Inter-Urban Co. want a ten-year franchise. period than one year in any event, and the Inter-Urban Co, want a ten-year franchise. Clerk Normen will tell them the reason.

In connection with Councillor Frank Howe's parallel road scheme and the purchase of the right-of-way; a house and lot on Erskine-avenue was bought, the house, a two-storey structure, and now, strange to relate, tho the lot is there, the house has disappeared. Council gave $1100 for that property, and later asked for tenders for the purchase of the building. There was never a tender, and the supposition is that some friend in disguise took the initiative in the matter and removed the house body and bones. Anyway, it is gone, and Chief Collins was instructed to get hot on the trail of the party or parties, invoke the aid of the solicitor and bring back the house. Chief Collins will bring to bear all his professional instincts.

Then they had quite a discussion over Councillor Lawrence's pet scheme, the widening of Yonge-street. In season and out of it, the chairman of the finance committee hammers away at his favorite hobby, and it must be said that he made out a fairly strong case. Councillor Lawrence wants 10 feet or more added to the westerly side of Yonge-street, and favored the passage of a bylaw compelling the erection of all new business places and residences a certain distance back from the present street line. He also suggested that the taxes on the property might be refunded for a period covering the cost of the improvements.

Councillor Reid was strongly in favor of the proposal, and wanted to get the thing under way before annexal.
