MISSING BOY FOUND.

Eddie Pace Was Working on a Farm at Schomberg.

Eddie Pace, of 12 Wood street, who ran away from home, has returned after having been away more than five days. He was brought back from a farm in Schomberg by his father. The lad had visited this farmer some months ago as a friend of the family. Mrs. Pace said yesterday that it was difficult to understand how Eddie had been able to make his way into Schomberg because when he left home he had little or no money upon him. Eddie said that he took a street car to the limits of North-Toronto. From there he had a lorry ride a little way into the country. He walked to Schomberg by relays after this.

"Wasn't it strange?" said Mrs. Pace. "A lady at Oak Ridges had noticed your story of Eddie's disappearance and telephoned in to me to say that a lad of his description had stopped a little while at her farm. Sure enough, Eddie had stopped there."

Eddie's mother had already tried to get him on to a farm thru the medium of the resources committee, but the woman in charge had pointed out that he was too young.

Mrs. Wilson, of 96 Wood street, has heard no more of her son officially. Yesterday she stated she was working upon a clue which she hoped might lead to information as to his whereabouts.

FIGHT OVER TRANSFER ENDS IN ARREST

As the result of an argument over the time punched on a street car by Ernest George Rota, 3 Ernest avenue, a conductor on a Harbour street car was arrested last night by Policeman Savage (473), of Ossington avenue station, on a charge of aggravated assault. The complainant is Charles Healy, 245 Symington avenue, a passenger on the car.

According to the police of the division, a woman who was with her husband, a returned soldier, with one leg, offered the conductor a transfer which he refused. An argument ensued, and it is alleged by the police that the woman left the car, and the conductor followed and struck her. The woman's husband, the returned soldier, then got up and went out to protect his wife. Rota then turned on him and, it is said, knocked him down. Healy, witnessing the affair then got out of the car to take the soldier's part, and the conductor turned on him and knocked him down and bit him in the arm so severely that medical attention was needed.

Just as the fight was at its critical stage the policeman arrived on the scene, and placed the conductor under arrest. Healy was severely cut in the arm where Rota's teeth penetrated his coat.
