CHINESE STUDENTS

HOLD DEMONSTRATION Tokio, May 7 .- Chinese students in Tokio as a protest against the ces-sion of the German rights in Shantung to Japan held a demonstration today in front of the Chinese legation Stones were thrown thru a number of windows and several of the students were hurt in encounters with the police. The Chinese afterwards marched to the various embassies and legations including the American embassy, and presented a manifesto declaring that the decision of the peace conference was "a deadly stroke to China." The manifesto declared that Japan desired to annex Shantung to satisfy her ambition and that to give Japan control of Shantung "cultivates Japan's selfish militarism, thereby threatening war in the far east." It added that Tsingtao was China's most strategic point and that Shantung was the birthplace of Confucius. The manifesto concluded with the demand that the German rights be returned to China.

FOUR SHILLINGS SAVED IN WEEKLY FAMILY BUDGET

London. May 7 .- In the house of commons today the food controller stated that the premier's anticipated saving of four shillings weekly in the working family's budget by early summer has been more than real-ized. Britain had freely placed at the disposal of the allies all our resources, for the securing of adequate sources, for the securing of adequate supplies of essential foodstuffs, he said, and the food ministry might be wound up about the middle of November as home grown wheat would be decontrolled by the end of September. However the control of milk, the development of national kitchens supplies of essential foodstuffs, he said, and the food ministry might be wound up about the middle of November as home grown wheat would be decontrolled by the end of September. However the control of milk, the development of national kitchens and the regulation of prices as affected by trusts and combines should be regarded as permanent.

London, May 7.—The liner Adriatic, which left New York on April 28, passed Browhead at seven o'clock Tuesday evening with a fire in her cargo, according to a wireless message received from the steamer at Valentia, Ireland, and transmitted here. The message said that the bunker hold had been sealed up. regarded as permanent.
