

Brothers

es.

and get $6 in

te must needs

of leather,

fall joys—for emnant of the

the hands of

AIN DAY

p.m.

HERS

ership.

er Shoe Store

pen. "Good-

USEMENTS.

are Coming

B POINT

Aug. 8th.

(World's Champions)

CUMSEHS

y rain or shine. Games admission 25c. Grand

large for reserving seats

GI COMING

he Great

AGE SHOWS

THE

rudent, Largest, Best

-Of America's

-Big Amusement

-Enterprises . . .

gs, Two Stages, Half

Track, Fifty Cage

rie, Museum, Royal

Hippodrome and

ALSTON

High Diver

00,000 INVESTED

CAPITAL

modern, thoroughly

Circus now travel-

erses of Any Show

on Earth.

-Excursions Run

nto, On Tuesday,

August 11th.

oria Park.

ay, August 1.

-Admission Free.

-Cars to Gate.

ing and a number of good seats

the holiday take cars for Victoria

J. T. GARDNER.

—FISHING

—TAKING

MICHIE'S SUPPLIES

The best of everything in

—Provisions

—Beverages

—Cigars

Price Lists Made on Application.

MICHIE & CO.,

114 and 116 St. West

466 and 468 Spadina Ave.

WHAT KILLED MRS. MURRAY?

The Cook on Board the Schooner Lavington

Died Very Suddenly.

Buffalo, July 31.—Ellen Murray, a Canadian, who was cook aboard the schooner Lavington, died suddenly last night. Capt. Smith, who was on deck about 11 o'clock, when he heard deep groans coming from the cook's stateroom. He and the mate forced the door. The woman was found to be unconscious, and died soon after Dr. Harrington arrived. Mrs. Murray shipped at Kingston, Ont., two months ago. It is believed she had a daughter living in Belleville.

ARRESTED ON A SERIOUS CHARGE.

Mrs. Wilson, a St. Thomas Woman, in the Tells Charged as a Procuress.

St. Thomas, July 31.—Mrs. Wilson was arrested at noon today by Chief Pawling and P.C. Smith on a charge of endeavoring to lead astray Florence Annabella Rogers, a woman who was arrested last night. The parties live in the Victoria Block in the West End.

AN UNCERTAIN VERDICT.

The Coroner's Jury at Rossau's Bay Has

Died From Cause Unknown.

Rossau, Ont., July 31.—The adjourned inquest was held here today at 1.30 p.m. on the death of Albert James Rossau, a villager, who died on June 23 under peculiar circumstances. There has been no analysis made and no further evidence could be obtained. The jury, after 35 minutes, agreed that he came to his death from cause unknown.

FREE EDUCATION FOR ALL.

The Socialists Vote in Favor of This From Mildergarten to University.

London, July 31.—At the International Socialist Congress, which is now in session at the Hotel de Ville, Paris, a resolution was adopted in favor of free education from kindergarten to university. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 1,000 to 500. It was declared that children should not be exempt from attendance at school until they reached the age of 16 years.

TO RELEASE DYNAMITERS.

The Globe Says Some of the Irish Political

Prisoners Will Get Freedom.

London, July 31.—The Globe, a Conservative paper, says several of the Irish political prisoners who are now serving long sentences will shortly be released owing to the bad condition of their health.

East End News.

Among the visitors to Asbridge's Bay and the Don Plains are a box of cranes. City marksmen have not spared the birds, and on this count the cranes are of value. The cranes are of the species known as the Egyptian Goose, and are being kept by the Asbridge family. The cranes are being kept in a large enclosure at Asbridge's Bay. The cranes are being kept in a large enclosure at Asbridge's Bay.

The corner of De Grassi and Gerrard is to have a new brick store.

Mr. Sulder will conduct the services on Sunday at Broadway Congregational

Church.

St. John's Presbyterian Church, Gerrard

and Bolton, is being renovated and enlarged.

Mrs. P. says: "My daughter was killed by a car for two years; she took Miller's Compound Iron Pills for one month and is now well and strong." 50 doses for 25 cents.

Schomburg & Aurora Railway Company.

The meeting of the shareholders of the Schomburg & Aurora Railway Company was held in the city yesterday. Mr. Jamieson of Toronto was elected as director. Mr.

D. E. Hamby was made secretary and Mr.

A. B. Armstrong president.

ATTO

DRY GOODS ONLY

Saturday, 1st August, 1896.

Half-Day

Sensations

Blouse Waists, 50c, 75c, $1.

Parasols, $2.

Washing Fabrics, 12 1/2c.

Silks, 30c, 50c, 75c, $1.

Children's Reefers, $1.50.

Ladies' Jackets, $3, $6.

Ladies' Capes, $2, $4.50.

Ladies' Costumes, $8.

AT ONE O'CLOCK WE CLOSE

MAIL ORDERS

to hand after that hour

will be filled at 8 o'clock

Monday Morning.

JOHN CATTO & SON,

King-st., Opposite the Postoffice.

WATERFRONT NOTES.

Deaths of the Steamers—Fewer Excursions

Yesterday—Another Inmate Re-

cued From the Bay.

Yesterday, for the first time in several weeks, there were no pinnies at island Park. There was a good crowd at the island, nevertheless, and in the evening several thousand people went over on the ferry steamers.

Water in the harbor is two inches below zero.

The Greyhound yesterday took an excursion party of the Boys' Brigade to Oakville.

A joint picnic was held at Dundurn

Park, Hamilton, by the master plumbers of this city and those of London.

About 100 of the Toronto body went to the Ambitious City on the big steamers Modjeska and Macassa.

The Tynon yesterday brought a large excursion up from Newcastle,

Bowmanville and other eastern points.

The visitors returned in the evening.

The Niagara boats carried large crowds yesterday, including the excursion of Gowans, Kent & Co.'s employees.

A party of enthusiastic canoeists will leave to-day for a cruise in the north.

They will paddle from the Georgian

Bay by roundabout route to the Pettawawa River. The party will include Messrs. Riddon, J. E. Jones,

W. Pinckney, A. N. Middleton, J. C.

Middleton, A. H. Rolph and H. M.

Evans.

West District L.O.L. will hold an excursion to the Falls to-day, going by the Chippewa and Chelona.

The peculiar manner in which Michael McLaughlin, a stevedore, was conducting himself, and the street

what yesterday morning had just attracted the attention of those in the vicinity, when he took a sudden turn and fell into the bay. He was helpless in the water, and was sinking, when Joseph Sullivan, a waterman, jumped in after him. Customs Officer Munro brought a ladder, and the two men were taken out. McLaughlin, who seemed in no wise grateful to his rescuer, said he was a little giddy.

The harbor Commissioners will hold a meeting to-day to consider the question of dredging. It is asserted that the work, as at present being done is not satisfactory.

The band tournament at Hamilton

next week will attract many visitors to the Ambitious City, and as the local hands will take a leading part in the affair, it is expected that large crowds will go from this city. The Hamilton steamers Modjeska and Macassa, will carry passengers at special rates during the week.

NINETEEN GO TO DEATH.

A Big Band of Hungarian Brigands and

Murderers Has at Last Been Captured and Sentenced.

Agram, Hungary, July 31.—For some time the St. Slavof District was infested by a gang that was organized for the purpose of brigandage and murder. The authorities finally determined to make an effort to extirpate the gang, with the result that a number of men and women were arrested, either with a direct knowledge that they were implicated in the crime, or in which the gang were accused or suspicion that they were implicated.

The prisoners were brought to trial,

and to-day a verdict of guilty of murder was pronounced against 19 of them, who were sentenced to death.

Others of the prisoners were convicted of lesser crimes and were sentenced to various terms of imprisonment. Two of the prisoners on whom sentence of death was passed are women.

WILL START WORK AT ONCE.

Col. Englehard's Company Has Arranged for Capital to Operate the Mikado Mine.

Col. Englehard, the member of the English South Africa mining syndicate, who visited Canada a few weeks ago with a view to transferring its operations to the Mikado mine, at Old Country, written Mr. Arch Blue of the Ontario Bureau of Mines, as follows: "It will interest you to hear that in consequence of the Mikado mine, on Big Bay, Lake of the Woods, my syndicate has instructed me to start mining operations.

On my arrival here I found arrangements for capital complete, and so in a few weeks I hope to start ore for treatment to the Portage reduction works. The mine can be worked at once, as it is an open quarry."

Col. Englehard reports bromo-ynocyanide to have been employed with success in the treatment of arsenical ore

in West Australia.

KILLED AT A CROSSING.

Seth Young of London Met Instant Death

Yesterday Morning.

London, July 31.—A fatal railway crossing accident occurred on the

P. & O. Dredge line this morning

being by which Seth Young of Young

Bros., blacksmiths, on Clarence-street, was instant killed. Mr. Young was driving a horse and carriage, and was on his way home. At Drayton's

Corner the railway takes a sudden curve which obstructs the view from the road. Just as Mr. Young reached the crossing in his buggy a special freight dashed across the curve and crashed into the buggy. Mr. Young was thrown some distance, and when picked up life was extinct. A coroner's inquest is now in progress.

IT TICKLED THE OLD MAN.

Philadelphia Manufacturers Wait on Him

at Haverdine Castle.

London, July 31.—Mr. Gladstone was yesterday waited on by a hundred members of the Philadelphia Manufacturers' Club at Haverdine Castle. He personally escorted the visitors about the grounds, and then listened to the history of the castle to them. The Americans were greatly pleased by the warm reception, and thought that Mr. Gladstone heartily for his courtesy. Then they gave him three cheers. Mr.

Gladstone was delighted with this show of appreciation, and said it was the first time he had heard American cheers.

Belleville Briefs.

Belleville, Ont., July 31.—Edward Caldwell, a young man of unsound mind, attempted a few days ago to stab his father at their home in Hamilton, and was now in jail here.

Mrs. Mary Smith, an old resident of Canton, died here yesterday, aged 80 years.

Work has been commenced on the grand stand for the regatta.

The Society Takes Little Ones.

The two small children of Robert

Adams and his wife Agnes, who were formerly lived on Adelaide-street, have been handed to the care of the Children's Aid Society owing to neglect.

Adams and his wife were allowed to go on suspended sentence.

Mrs. Maybrick's Poor Chances.

London, July 31.—Sir Matthew Whiteley,

in reply to a question by W. J. Mc-Gowan in regard to Mrs. Florence Maybrick, who is now serving a term of life imprisonment for the murder of her husband, stated that he was still most strongly opposed to the release of the prisoner.

Grover Fishes for Bass.

Buzard's Bay, Mass., July 31.—The

President and Private Secretary Thur-