This same idea applies to clothes worn. If a child is in the habit of being dressed in very fancy clothes, well and good, but if only its best clothes are ruffled and betrimmed, the mother must decide whether she prefers a good picture of the child or one of the clothes, says an exchange.

Sometimes the best photographs are secured by leaving the baby entirely to the photographer's care. He will often understand, by reason of his large experience, just how to secure a baby's attention, and to catch just the right expression on the little face.

Often this is impossible if he is interfered with by numerous loving aunts and grandparents in addition to the mother.

PORT HOPE CARRIED BYLAW.

PORT HOPE, Jan. 6.—(Special.)-In addition to elections for reeve and councillors the ratepayers to-day voted on a bylaw for the purpose of municipal lighting.

The same bylaw was submitted last January and was voted down by over one hundred. Since that time the town council has been unable to make any satisfactory arrangement with the local electric company, and to-day the ratepayers showed their dissatisfaction with the present local conditions and the bylaw was carried by a majority of 97. S. B. Burnham defeated Wm. McLean for reeveship by a majority
