VOL. I.
BOSTON: PUBLISHED BY
J. B. ALLEN, 1825.

The first settlement of the city of Boston was made by a small party of Englishmen, who, in the year 1630, sailed from England, and landed on the island of Boston. They were accompanied by a large number of women and children, and they brought with them a great quantity of provisions and tools. They found the island a desolate and uninhabited place, but they were determined to settle there, and they began to build houses and to cultivate the soil. They were soon joined by a larger party of settlers, and they began to build a town. They called the town Boston, in honor of the city of Boston in England.
