RECORD HOLIDAY CROWDS AT SAINT JOHN EXHIBITION

EXCEEDS USUAL TOTAL FOR LABOR DAY BY 2,000

Vaudeville Acts Before Grandstand Draw Large Patronage and Bands Furnish Musical Program

SHATTERING the usual Labor Day attendance of 2,000, approximately 22,000 citizens and visitors to Saint John passed through the turnstiles at the gates of the Saint John Exhibition yesterday. The crowds along the midway were so dense during the afternoon and early evening that progress could be made only at a snail's pace. Intermittent showers made the weather disagreeable at times and sent the crowds running for the buildings, but this did not detract from the enjoyment of the visitors, old and young.

Sergeant Detective Power said last night at the close for the day of the big show that his officers had had no occasion to report anything of a disturbing nature and that the crowds were most orderly. No complaints of pickpockets were made and no arrests were effected. Members of the police force and special constables were on hand all day to render any assistance needed. The parking of cars was capably supervised by Police Constables Gill and Corner.

The large grandstand was packed at both afternoon and evening vaudeville performances. The vaudeville acts are undoubtedly of a high class order and the music furnished by the Fusilliers' Band in the morning and by the Carlton Cornet Band at the afternoon and night shows, added much to the enjoyment. Older and more staid members of the family were continually dipping their hands in their pockets for the "dime" with which to purchase the peanuts, ice cream, pop-corn, balloons, whips and the Exhibition souvenirs that have an unflagging charm for the younger generation.

VAUDEVILLE ACTS.

Perhaps the acts on the vaudeville program that drew the greatest applause and were most thrilling were those of the Great Curran, who ascended a swaying perpendicular of steel pole and at the top, at a height of 85 feet, held the crowds spellbound with the daring of his acrobatics and May Collier, world famous high diver. This young lady performed the difficult and highly hazardous feat of diving from a height of 60 feet into a shallow water tank. Her other dives and fancy aquatic feats drew big applause.

The Randow Trio were clever and comical in their tumbling act. The famous Flying Floyd, graceful aerial

THOUSANDS ATTRACTED.

The livestock show, comprising sheep, cows, horses and pigs, attracted thousands of exhibition patrons during the day and night. Farmers from a large number of Maritime Provinces districts have submitted their livestock for judging.

A demonstration in Acadian weaving was given yesterday afternoon at two o'clock in the women's department. The canning and preserving of fruits and vegetables was demonstrated by Miss E. A. Preston, of the fruit branch, at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Demonstrations in "Home Beautiful" women's department proved to be extremely popular with the lady visitors to the big show. All the demonstration events were highly interesting and instructive nature. So dense were the crowds in the women's department, while the demonstration was in progress that little or no headway could be made.

MANY VIEW ART EXHIBIT.

The art exhibits and the Natural History display were viewed by never ending streams of people throughout the afternoon and evening. These exhibits were the objects of unstinted praise on the part of patrons.

DOG SHOW RESULTS.

Judging in the St. Bernards, Newfoundlands, pointers and English setters was completed last night by Vincent's dog show building during the day and night. The class of dogs is very fine this year. Irish setters will be judged this morning. The morning judging will commence at 10:30 o'clock, and the results of yesterday's judging follow:

CHARITY ADDED TO PIKE.

The pike is all that it has been in former years with the element of charity added this season. The Gyro Club were kept busy yesterday selling tickets for their warren. The proceeds of this booth will be used for charitable purposes. Friends of the New Brunswick Orphanage have a booth on the main pike and did a rushing business yesterday afternoon and last night. The proceeds from this booth will be added to the funds for Orphanage work.

CYCLIST CLIMBS WALLS.

The daredevil element is provided by a motorcycle drome where one may be thrilled by watching the cyclist climb the almost vertical walls of the drome with his "iron horse" motor going at breakneck speed.
