Women's Service League In West End Changes Its Name

THE opening meeting of the Carleton Women's Service League was held last night at the home of Mrs. E. H. Smith, Olive street, with the president, Mrs. J. S. Williamson, in the chair. It was decided that the League would take charge of the catering for the West End Improvement League when the opening of the new City Hall takes place. Mrs. Norman P. McLeod was appointed general convener.

Ten new members joined the league, Mrs. W. B. Hicks, Mrs. E. A. Westrup, Mrs. Herbert O'Dell, Mrs. William Spencer, Mrs. Walter W. Allingham, Mrs. Martin Campbell, Mrs. Fred Fullerton, Mrs. James Clark, Mrs. B. L. Reid and Mrs. G. P. Hennessey. It was decided to change the name of the league to that of the Auxiliary of the Carleton branch of the Canadian Legion of the B. E. S. L. Mrs. Frank Scott was elected second vice-president. A letter expressing deep regret in the unavoidable retirement of Mrs. G. Earle Logan from that office was to be sent from the meeting. Mrs. Ernest Blissett was elected to the executive.

It was decided to provide refreshments for the taggers at the curling rink on Poppy Day. The meeting also decided to give jellies, preserves, cakes and flowers to the Lancaster hospital at various times during the winter. A committee appointed to look after the flowers was composed of Mrs. W. A. Macaulay and Mrs. James Brittain, and to take charge of jellies and cakes, Mrs. LeBaron Clark was named convener. The business meeting closed with the singing of the national anthem, after which a social half hour was enjoyed and the hostess served dainty refreshments.

Social Notes

Miss Doris Woodrow, whose marriage will take place in the near future, was the guest of honor at a charmingly arranged tea and novelty shower on Monday afternoon. Little Miss Frances Colwell, wearing a dainty frock of pale blue voile with stockings to match, attended the door. Cut flowers made attractive decorations and at the tea hour the prettily appointed table was presided over by Miss Edna Colwell, while Miss Mary Harrison and Miss Emma Colwell assisted in serving. During the afternoon the guest of honor was presented with an attractive basket, containing a large number of beautiful and useful gifts for which she expressed her appreciation and thanks in a charming manner. Those present were Miss Doris Woodrow, Miss Helen Woodrow, Mrs. Kenneth McLaughlin, Mrs. Clarence Wetmore, Mrs. Harvey Colwell, Mrs. H. B. Manning, Mrs. Kenneth Colwell, Miss Sylvia Ferguson, Miss Rita Collins, Miss Agnes Montgomery, Miss Elsie Henderson, Miss Frances Murdoch, Miss Elsie Spence, Miss Wynne, Miss Ethel Thompson, Miss Hazel Thompson, Miss Grace Parkinson, Miss Edna Colwell, Miss Emma Colwell and Miss Mary Harrison.

Mrs. Alexander Wilson entertained informally at her home in Queen Square on Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Freeman Lake, of Montreal. The house was tastefully decorated for the occasion and in the dining room Halloween favors and beautiful chrysanthemums made an attractive appearance on the upper table. Bridge was played and Mrs. Freeman Lake was the fortunate prize winner. The guests included Mrs. Freeman Lake, of Montreal, Mrs. Walter Allison, Mrs.

Coburg Street W. M. S. Missionary Society Has Good Program

Coburg street Women's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. J. B. Prince, 186 Carmichael street, last night for their monthly meeting. After a short business session, with the president, Mrs. W. J. Johnson, in the chair the following program was rendered under the convener'ship of Mrs. H. H. Gillis, leader of Division II: Hymn; prayer, by J. Sheppard; scripture reading, by Mrs. F. G. Cogges; paper, by Miss L. Hoyt; prayer by Mrs. Cogges; Mrs. Prince, Mrs. L. Hoyt; paper, by Mrs. J. Sheppard; a talk on the rural church. After the program a new member was welcomed into the society. ### Showing How Completely COMMUNITY PLATE Meets Gift Requirements

COMMUNITY PLATE WEEK

IN SAINT JOHN—Fourth Day

Unfortunately few gifts come up to the expectations of those who receive them. It is always so difficult to choose for others—unless one plays absolutely safe and gives COMMUNITY PLATE.

No woman ever has too much table silver. Its enduring loveliness is a constant source of delight, its richness is fascinating beyond measure; the pride of ownership never wanes. And COMMUNITY PLATE—the loveliest of all modern silverware—offers an immense choice of gift sets and gift pieces, within the bounds of any amount you wish to spend.

Having given COMMUNITY PLATE you can on future gift occasions, send additional pieces to complete "her" set. A most satisfactory and inexpensive way to take care of your gift obligations.

For a change; Try VIENNA

Let auld acquaintance be forgot, invite back to your home the Vienna style of Bread. Now obtainable for the first time in years—but the same good old taste, the same good old crispy, crusty, long Vienna Loaf you used to love so well.

The reason you couldn't get it for so long was a wrapping difficulty, now overcome by enclosing it in a Glassine Bag. By this means Vienna Loaf comes fresher, crisper and tastier than ever.

The good grocers all have it—but hurry in your order. Weighs the same as other Bread, costs the same, no more. And oh! what great eating.
