UNIQUE HAS CONVICT STORY

Vivid Picture of Life in Sing Sing Prison; Thos. Meighan and Lois Wilson.

Thomas Meighan scored decisively in his latest photoplay, "The City of Silent Men," at the Unique Theatre last night. The story deals with a country boy who goes to the city and, falling into the hands of crooks, unconsciously aids in the commission of a crime and, although innocent, is sentenced to prison. He makes his escape and, going to California, he assumes another name and becomes superintendent of a factory. Then love enters his life, and on his wedding day the shadow of his past rises before him. How he regains happiness makes a delightful story. Lois Wilson is his leading woman and she heads a strong supporting cast. The picture is well worth seeing, as from every angle it is one of the best of the Meighan repertoire.

"KEYTAINERS"
Fits vest or hip pocket or lady's hand bag without bulging.
SPREADS KEYS OUT FLAT INSTEAD OF BUNCHING THEM.
When full this "KEYTAINER" is as thin as a pocketbook. Keys hang in a row on hooks.
They are comfortable to carry—even when each hook contains two keys. Keys cannot bunch up and wear holes in your pockets as they are always bound to do when on a ring, and the flat, smooth, neat shape makes a great difference in the appearance and wear of your clothing. The hooks are so designed that one downward pull removes it—yet these hooks hold the keys so securely they cannot possibly be lost off.

"SILENT FIVE" BREAK SAFE.

Burglars Leave a Note After Getting $260.

After they had ripped open a safe and obtained $260 in the store of Jacob Bradson, a talking-machine dealer, 146 Greenpoint avenue, Brooklyn, burglars who described themselves as the "Silent

Five" left a note in which they thanked the owner for the money. "We have had a pleasant visit," the note added, "and we will come some other day." Several safe robberies in the vicinity in the last few months were believed by the police to have been committed by the same thieves, who left a note in each instance. The strongbox was invaded by the use of a "can opener." The

BETTER THAN HARD COAL
Soft coal so free from soot that it does not make whistlers on stove covers or pipes and does not mat or cake when burning, is far better than Hard Coal for general household use. Quicker to light, takes less to make a fire, cheaper in price and can also be used for open fires and small heating stoves. Such a coal is Broad Cove soft coal. The main thing to insist on getting the genuine article. No other soft coal burns just like Broad Cove. You will know it by the above characteristics.

Statistics Say Four to One Against You

Unless you take proper precautions, the odds are four to one that you will contract Pyorrhea before or after you pass the age of forty.

Something to think about, isn't it?
There are two things you can do: play the long shot and pay the probable penalty, or set about in a sensible manner to insure your teeth.

Pyorrhea has cost many an individual his teeth and health. It starts with tender, bleeding gums. That is the danger signal you should be quick to heed.

Ignore it and Pyorrhea does its deadly work in a hurry. The gums recede, the teeth loosen and drop out or must be pulled. Pus pockets form at the roots of the teeth and disease germs swarm throughout the system.

You must not let Pyorrhea gain headway in your mouth. At the first warning, see your dentist and start using Forhan's For the Gums at once.

Forhan's For the Gums is the formula of R. J. Forhan, D. D. S. If used consistently and used in time it will prevent Pyorrhea or check its course.

Don't wait a day longer. Stop at your druggist's at once, buy a tube of Forhan's and start using it today.

Brush your teeth with Forhan's regularly. It is an excellent dentifrice and will keep your teeth and mouth in perfect health. Four out of five wait too long. Don't be one of them. 35c and 60c at all druggists.
