Come, Girls!
TALK!

Are you getting wise as to what the Y. W. C. A. appeal means?

A little bit of pep is all that is needed to get the helpful spirit that is looked for.

Are you talking together about it at home, in the store, on the street? Collect from everybody. Home folks will help, busy folks and brothers and sisters love to help. Everyone thinking sister will enjoy gymnasium next winter, little sister hoping she can go, too. Soon all kinds of ideas develop just by talking. Picnics, sales, and dances help out to raise part and friends give what they can—and $25.00 doesn't look so big. Try it. 1,000 girls doing it must make some noise for

RECENT DEATHS

The death occurred at Kouchibouguac, Kent county, on Tuesday of Elizabeth Margaret, the seven-months-old infant of James and Ethel Kingston, of St. John. The interment was made at Kouchibouguac yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Kingston will have the sympathy of many friends in their affliction.

Her many friends were sorrowfully surprised last night to hear of the death of Mrs. Hattie Woodley, beloved wife of Arthur B. Woodley, which occurred last night at her home, 28 Broad street, after a short illness.

Mrs. Woodley, who was the daughter of Rev. James A. Porter and Mrs. Porter, of South Devon, is survived by her parents, two sisters and one brother, besides her husband and two sons. The sisters are Mrs. William Curtis, Springfield (Mass.) and Mrs. Fred Ellis, of East Brantree (Mass.); the brother, John Porter, is in Somerville (Mass.), and the husband and two sons, Cecil and Ralph, are at home.

Much sympathy will be extended to Mr. and Mrs. James E. Reid in the death of their son, Lewis Carl, which occurred on August 12 at their residence, 79 St. Patrick street, at the age of ten years and eight months, after an illness of three months. The boy was a bright and lovable child and will be sorely missed by his sorrowing relatives. Besides his father and mother he is survived by two brothers, Harry and Bert, and by one sister, Mary, all at home. The funeral will take place on Friday at 8.30 o'clock and burial will be made in Fernhill cemetery.

After an illness of six months' duration the death took place yesterday at his residence, 32 Clarendon street, of Joseph P. Turner, who was sixty-five years of age. Mr. Turner was a well-known marine engineer and had been employed previous to his illness on the government steamer Aberdeen. He had many friends throughout the city and was a member of Court LaTour Independent Order of Foresters. He is survived by his wife, one son and two daughters. The son is Robert G., while the daughters are Miss Lillian M. and Miss Muriel A., all at home. He also leaves two brothers.

The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon from his late residence. Service will be at 2.30 o'clock.

W. M. Carruthers, a well known politician of Kentville, dropped dead in a store there Wednesday night. He was connected with the Nova Scotia Carriage Company for a time and later was secretary of the Three Counties Exhibition Association.

Word was received here yesterday that L. W. Pine, agent of the Eastern Steamship Lines, Inc., at Lunenburg, and well known along the coast, had dropped dead on the wharf there. Mr. Pine was long with the St. John-Boston lines, having been in the employ of the International Steamship Company, Eastern Steamship Company, Eastern Steamship Corporation and Eastern Steamship Lines, Inc.

He was sixty-five years of age and is survived by three sons and four daughters.

IF YOU SEND FRUIT OR VEGETABLES TO STATES

Ottawa, Aug. 13—(Canadian Press)—Packages of fruits and vegetables from Canada to the United States must be marked net weight. Such is the information conveyed in a wire received by the fruit commissioner's branch of the department of agriculture.

DROPPED DEAD AT REFINERY.

Charles McGill, of West St. John, employed by D. C. Clark, contractor, at present at work on the sugar refinery, dropped dead there at about 2.30 yesterday afternoon. Doctor Curran was called and on his arrival pronounced the death due to heart failure. He was removed to O'Neil's undertaking rooms. Mr. McGill is survived by his wife and five children the eldest of whom is twelve years of age, two brothers, John, of the United States, and Hugh of West St. John; and three sisters, Mrs. William Dunstan, Mrs. George Richardson and Mrs. William McLellan, all of Dauphin, Manitoba.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

An attempt was made yesterday on the life of Premier Venizelos of Greece as he was leaving the Lyons railway station for Nice. Two men fired revolvers at him, and were promptly arrested. The premier was slightly wounded. Louis P. Verande, an impressario, has written from Paris that he has seen the body of Ambrose J. Small, the missing millionaire theatre magnate of Toronto, in a Paris morgue. Mr. Verande was introduced to Mr. Small in Toronto, and is fairly positive of the identification of the body. The committee in charge of the Small estate is using every means available to test the reliability of the report.

The ceremony of the blessing of St. Thomas' College, at Chatham, took place on Sunday afternoon. His Lordship Bishop Henry O'Leary, of Charlottetown, officiated. The sermon in connection with the blessing was preached by Rev. Father Wheaton of Bathurst. A tribute was paid to the life and work of the late Bishop Barry of Chatham. Reference was also made to the zeal of Bishop Louis O'Leary of Chatham, as well as the clergy and laity. About 1,000 people were in attendance and a substantial sum added to the college fund.

The Boy Scouts' silver medal has been presented to Ray J. Smith, son of Alderman Smith of Woodstock, for saving a lad from drowning in the Meduxnekeag stream.

Premier Meighen will be one of the speakers at a public meeting to be held in Truro on Tuesday evening, August 24. The other speakers will be Hon. Hugh Guthrie, minister of militia, and Hon. F. B. McCurdy, minister of public works.

The International Typographical Union in convention in Albany, N. Y., yesterday chose Quebec as the place for holding the 1921 convention.

Col. R. B. O'Sullivan, dental director of the D. S. C. R., accompanied by Col. E. L. Neilly, unit dental director for the maritime provinces, arrived in the city yesterday. Colonel O'Sullivan is inspecting the dental clinics and expressed himself as well pleased with the three in St. John. He went to Fredericton last night. Colonel Neilly left this morning on the Digby boat.
