RECENT WEDDINGS

Lowe-McAllister.

A very interesting event took place at Lorneville, at the home of the bride, Tuesday, June 24, at 2 o'clock, when Miss Mary McAllister was united in marriage to William A. Lowe, of West St. John. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties by the Rev. W. J. Davis.

Edwards-Gardner.

St. Stephen, June 25—Arthur Brewer Edwards, assistant business manager of the Gannett Press, and Miss Beatrice Gardner, of St. John, were united in marriage at the bride's home this evening at 6 o'clock.

Culligan-Jakeman.

Fredericton, N. B., June 25—Harry Culligan, of the Dominion Express Company, son of Mrs. Harriet Culligan of this city, was married at Vancouver this afternoon to Miss Ruth Jakeman of that place.

Day-Tower.

An interesting wedding took place last evening at 8 o'clock at the Tabernacle Baptist parsonage, when Rev. A. L. Tedford, minister in marriage Frank Gardiner Day, of Pointe St. John, and Miss Ethel May Tower, of 22 Johnston street, St. John. The bride, who was given away by her brother, wore an embroidered Copenhagen blue dress of crepe-de-chene. Many friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony and the large number of fine presents received testified to the popularity of the young people.

Wood-Hoyt.

Last evening at 8.30 at the home of the bride's parents, Ida May Hoyt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hoyt, the bride's parents, Ida May Hoyt, Jacob Wood, of this city, were united in marriage by the Rev. D. J. McPherson. The bride was given away by her father and was very becomingly attired in grey crepe-de-chene with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. She received many beautiful and useful presents, among them a substantial check from the Hygienic Bakery, where she was formerly employed. Only immediate relations were present and a very dainty wedding supper was served.

Rosborough-Chappell.

Fredericton, June 25—Miss Edith T. Chappell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Chappell, of Fredericton, and George Frederick Rosborough, son of Mr. Belle Rosborough, of Prince William, were united in marriage today by Rev. A. D. McLeod, pastor of the Devon Methodist church. The groom was a member of the original 29th New Brunswick Battalion and was invalided home on account of wounds. He re-enlisted in the 29th Macdonald Highlanders and again went overseas. Miss Jean Forbes was bridesmaid and George B. Chappell brother of the bride, was groomsmen. The bride was an operator at the Fredericton telephone exchange and her fellow operators served at the wedding luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood are leaving this morning for Nova Scotia on their honeymoon and on their return will reside at 41 Elliot row.

Blackley-Dawson.

Miss Gladys L., daughter of Rev. G. G. and Mrs. Dawson, was married yesterday afternoon to Captain T. W. Blackley, C.A.M.C., at Ramoth street church. The bride's father officiated, assisted by Rev. George Morris; her sister, Miss Amy, was bridesmaid, while her brother, Harold, acted as groomsmen. The bride wore a tailored suit of navy blue serge and carried a shower bouquet of roses. The happy couple left last evening on a honeymoon trip to Ottawa. The groom is a member of the staff of St. Anne de Bellevue and the bride is a graduate and former teacher of Toronto General Hospital. The wedding presents were numerous and included a gift in cut glass from the boards of Ramoth street church. The church was elaborately decorated with daisies and ferns.

McAllister-Cunningham.

Yesterday afternoon, at 2.30 o'clock, Miss Eva, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cunningham, 41 Guilford street, became the bride of Marshall McAllister. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's parents by Rev. Dr. J. A. Morrison, assisted by Rev. W. P. Dunham, brother-in-law of the bride. The bride, who was unattended, wore a gown of white georgette with veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of roses. Mr. and Mrs. McAllister will motor to Boston, and on their return will reside at Guilford street. The out-of-town guests included the bride's brother, Professor W. J. Cunningham, professor of transportation, Harvard College, and wife; Mr. and Mrs. Clement Caruthers, Summerside (P. E. I.); Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Cunningham, Moncton; Mrs. C. O. Dale, Newton (Mass.). The wedding gifts were numerous and appropriate and included two fine pictures from G. E. Barbour & Co., Ltd., and silverware from staff.

Fulton-Magee.

Miss Grace, daughter of Robert Magee, 8311 avenue, East St. John, and Ralph L. Fulton, North End, were married yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, at Edmund street church by Rev. G. F. Dawson.

Murphy-Bonell.

St. Stephen, June 25—A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the church of Holy Rosary this morning at 8 o'clock when Miss Amy Bonnell of this town, and Frank Murphy, of Calais (Me.), were united in marriage by Rev. Father O'Flaherty, parish priest of this town.

Peterson-Hunt.

St. Stephen, June 25—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Sedgwick, Union street, was the scene of an interesting wedding this morning at 11 o'clock when their niece, Miss Lorn Hunt, was united in marriage to Ed Peterson, of Eastport (Me.). After a wedding breakfast served the happy pair left by automobile for the opening of a vocational school there next September. At Woodstock Mr. Peterson meets Father Tessler and they proceed to Edmundston, where they are to hold meetings to explain the opportunities afforded by courses in vocational education.

The marriage of Miss Lillian C. MacFarlane and Berle A. McGilchney of St. Stephen, N. B., took place here yesterday. Rev. F. G. Cotton officiated.

The death of Mrs. Sophia Sleeves wife of G. A. Sleeves, occurred Tuesday morning at her residence, Moncton. She was formerly Miss Sophia Yould, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David S. Yould of Truro. She is survived by her husband, her parents; also four sisters and three brothers.

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION WORK

Fletcher Peacock, director of vocational education in St. Woodstock to meet with members of the local vocational education committee to consider plans for the opening of a vocational school there next September. At Woodstock Mr. Peacock meets Father Tessler and they proceed to Edmundston, where they are to hold meetings to explain the opportunities afforded by courses in vocational education.
