FAIRVILLE NEWS

Judgment in the Pink step case was not rendered yesterday, the case having been further adjourned until today. It is understood that all the evidence has been submitted and today's proceedings will consist chiefly of addresses by counsel. J. King Kelley for the highway board and W. A. Nelson representing Mr. Pink.

An effort was made to try to have the matter amicably settled, but no basis for negotiations could be arrived at. Meanwhile that particular section of the new sidewalk will have to await further developments, and if the case is appealed to the supreme court no difference which side ultimately triumphs, it looks as though some time must elapse before the final scene in this interesting situation is reached, the actual laying of concrete, somewhere in front of Pink's domicile.

Last evening a very successful congregational social was held in the Methodist vestry, which was brightly decorated with flags, autumn leaves and flowers for the occasion, and presented a very attractive appearance. Members of the Methodist faith who have lately taken up their residence in Fairville were individually introduced by the minister, Rev. Gilbert Earle, and the acquaintanceship were ripened by subsequent intercourse and social conversation. The work now in progress and plans for the future, including the remodeling of a class room and part of the kitchen into a church parlor were discussed by the pastor in a lengthy address, dealing with every phase of church activity.

In relation to the affairs of the Ladies' Aid Society, he explained that in addition to their efforts along regular lines, the members had undertaken to provide a quantity of needed articles for clothing for the Canadian soldiers. The announcement was heartily received. During the evening music was furnished by the choir and at the close refreshments were served by the Ladies' Aid Society.

DEAD IN HALIFAX

Christopher T. Connolly, Hackman, Formerly of St. John

Christopher T. Connolly, a well-known Halifax hackman, died today after a short illness. He was 77 years of age and was born in St. John, where he did business for some years before coming to Halifax. He leaves two sons, three daughters, seventeen grand children, five great grand children.

It is reported from Ottawa that the entire second contingent will be mobilized and equipped at divisional headquarters and will be assembled at Halifax for embarkation.

MONCTON PATRIOTIC FUND IS ORGANIZED; WHAT OF I. C. R. PAY?

Moncton, Oct. 8.—Last evening organization of the local branch of the Canadian Patriotic Fund was completed. The following were elected: President, Mayor W. K. Gross; 1st vice, A. J. Leeger; 2nd vice, Hon. C. W. Robinson; 3rd vice, Senator McEwen; secretary, W. H. Price; treasurer, J. T. Hawke; executive, Laughlin McKinnon, Dr. E. A. Richard, W. R. Rogers, E. A. Reilly, K. C. Capt. J. E. Masters, J. A. Marven, C. H. Henderson, F. G. Williams, C. E. Fox, A. H. Jones, J. Fred Edgett, Bilas Bourgeois, J. C. Keating, L. Higgins, Sheriff Willett, Dr. O. B. Price, M. P. P., and the mayor and aldermen ex officio. There will be a ladies' auxiliary.

Dr. Price, M. P. P., wished to know what action the I. C. R. authorities were taking to provide for the payment of wages to families of employees who have gone to the front. He had asked the minister of militia, when recruiting began, if an order-in-council, authorizing such a course, had been passed, but the minister replied that such action would be taken; but he (Price) had not heard that such an order had been passed.

A quiet but pretty wedding was performed in St. Luke's church at six o'clock last evening, when Rosina, daughter of Mrs. Louisa Ramsey, of 27 Murray street, was married to Henry Wagner, of Miami, Florida. Rev. R. P. McKim, rector of the church, officiated. The bride, who was unattended, wore a traveling suit of navy blue with becoming black hat and ostrich plume and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was given away by her brother. The wedding march was played by the organist of the church as the bridal party entered the church. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Wagner left on the Boston train for New York for a short visit on the way to Florida for the winter.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wagner wish them much happiness. The beautiful wedding gifts sent to the bride showed the appreciation of her friends. They included silver, cut glass, linen and china. The groom's present to the bride was a substantial check. Mr. and Mrs. Wagner will make their home in Brooklyn, N. Y., in the near future.

The new C. P. R. twin screw steamer Misamis has sailed on her maiden voyage.

CLERGYMAN BRINGS WORD

Rev. W. H. Johnson of St. George Arrived Today From England—Main Body Reached Britain Today

Some of the Canadian troops have been in England for a fortnight or more, according to a statement by Rev. W. H. Johnson, of St. George, who arrived in the city today from England, where he had been visiting with his wife and two children. He returned to Canada via Montreal on the Cunard liner Acadia. While in the city he will be the guest of Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson, Douglas avenue.

London, Oct. 8.—The Canadian troops, it is announced, arrived in home waters today.

MISS ETTA LOUISE JONES AND F. A. HOLMAN WED

A nuptial event of popular local interest was solemnized last evening at 8.30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Jones in Metcalf street, when their daughter, Miss Etta Louise Jones, became the bride of Frederick Augustus Holman, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Holman, of Kentford.

The bride was nicely attired in white silk with shadow lace overdress, and wore a Juliette cap with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. She was unattended. Following the ceremony a reception was held and a dainty luncheon served, at which about fifty guests were assembled. Later Mrs. Holman left on the Halifax train for a wedding trip through Nova Scotia. The bride traveled in a tailored costume navy blue with hat to correspond. On their return they will reside at 9 Metcalf street.

Many handsome remembrances were received including a Globe-Warwick sectional bookcase from the Brotherhood of Leinster street Baptist church to which the groom belongs; a coffee percolator from the primary teachers of Victoria street Baptist Sunday school of which the bride has been one; checks from relatives and marital clock from the associates of the groom in the office of M. R. A., Ltd., where he is assistant clerk. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome pin set with rubies and small diamonds. The bride and groom are very popular about the city and many friends wish them happiness in their married life.

STETSON DAY

Today is Stetson Day at the St. John Golf Club, the annual field day which brings the playing season to an official close. The feature of the day will be the final match in the Stetson handicap, the contestants being P. S. Nesbitt and W. W. Bruce. Play in this match has been going on for some weeks and these two players are the survivors of the principal handicap match of the year, the prize for which is the famous Stetson Cup.

This morning the ladies are playing single matches. At one o'clock luncheon for the players was given at the club houses, with a large attendance. This afternoon mixed foursomes constitute the card. There is a large number of special prizes for today's play. The prizes will be presented at the club house at the close of the afternoon play. F. A. Peters won the championship and the Weldon Cup this year. The course has been in excellent condition and the season has been one of the most successful in the club's history. It is expected that this will be the last season on the present grounds as the links of the Riverside Golf and Country Club will be opened for play next spring.

PIT PROPS

The board of trade had a cable message this morning from Bowden, New Brunswick commissioner in London, stating that "the following specifications of props are likely to be buyers in Britain: 2 to 7 inch top diameter; 6 to 10 feet lengths; large quantities; price prior to war 65c to 75c per fathom c.i.f.; 100s considered fair price on September 26. Timber Federation of London prepared to communicate likely buyers."

Robert H. Reid of Montreal, charged with obtaining $750,000 on false pretences, while out on $40,000 bail was re-arrested yesterday on the request of the chief of police of Halifax on a charge of dealing with a forged document, knowing it to be forged.

MADE IN CANADA CAMPAIGN IS LAUNCHED HERE

M. R. A.'s Eleven Windows a Revelation to the Public—Toronto Takes Action

Insist on the "Made-in-Canada" sign—mark on all your purchases whenever possible. That is the significance of a campaign becoming general throughout the Dominion and now being inaugurated in St. John by Manchester, Robertson, Allison, Ltd. It is really remarkable the collection of different classes of goods which they have made from their several departments and which have been turned out of Canadian factories, and the result of the first gun fired in the campaign is seen in eleven large display windows in which nothing but lines of home-manufacture is shown, even to the show-card decorations.

Even members of the firm themselves did not realize what a splendid assortment of really fine articles sold at their many counters came from Canadian manufactures, but the general public was undoubtedly amazed to learn the extent to which industrial life has developed throughout the Dominion. This is just a beginning, with M. R. A. There are other similar displays of Canadian-made goods yet to be shown, for the variety of the stock is by no means exhausted with the filling of the eleven windows, even though they do cover an extensive range.

An object lesson is presented in the showings, for they give an idea as to what can be done to develop Canadian industries and Canadian trade now that so many of the big manufacturing countries of Europe are paying more attention to the ways of war rather than to the bettering of peace.

A resolution advocating the general use of Canadian-made goods was passed by the Council of Trade and Commerce at a recent meeting, and will be distributed throughout Canada, as it is expected by the other side of the Atlantic that the secretary be instructed to forward a copy of this resolution to boards of trade in Canada asking them to take similar action with governmental and municipal authorities, and architects, and engineers in their districts.

THE LATE JOSEPH BULLOCK

In the current issue of the War Cry appears a picture of the late Joseph Bullock with the following appreciative note: The late Mr. Bullock of St. John, was a very warm friend of the Salvation Army, and his death will be much regretted by a large number of officers and soldiers who have come into personal contact with him. The Women's Social Work was of special interest to both him and his good wife, and it is largely as a result of their generosity that the Army possesses such a splendid Rescue Home in St. John.

Canadian Volunteers

Montreal, Oct. 8.—While actual recruiting for the second contingent cannot be opened till instructions have been received at the various stations—and these are expected within the course of a day or two at most—there is every evidence that the response to the call will be as enthusiastic as it was by the men who went to Valcartier. The ranks of the Victoria Rifles, the Grenadier Guards and the Fifth Royal Highlanders, depleted by the departure of volunteers with the first contingent, are being rapidly filled.

Andrew J. Barry Dead

The body of Andrew J. Barry whose death occurred on Sunday, in Somerville, Mass., at the age of 50 years, was brought to Bangor on Tuesday. Mr. Barry was formerly of Bangor and although he was born in Welford, N.B., he spent many years of his life in the Maine city.

Buy Cotton Goods Now

Never again is the Canadian woman likely to have such splendid opportunities to buy cotton goods as she has today. The war has forced the price of raw cotton to an unprecedented low figure. That, of course, means lessened prices for cotton fabrics and greater buying opportunities.
