

PROVINCIAL.

ALBERT CO.

Hopewell Cape, May 4.—Elder Webber, who has been arranging for the organization of a Seventh Day Adventist church here, left for St. John today. Two converts to that faith were immersed yesterday in Spencer's mill pond.

The bark W. W. McLaughlin, with deals from Grey's Island, sailed for Preston last night.

Mrs. Julia Barton and family arrived from St. John on Saturday and will remain here permanently.

Whitfield Kenne has purchased the property of the late Thomas Pye, sr. E. E. Peck has purchased the Thomas Fowles' property.

A fine new church organ has been placed in the Baptist church.

Hopewell Hill, May 4.—The three master Waterside arrived at Riverside today to load pressed hay for Boston. The Waterside is chartered by J. A. McQueen of Pt. de Bute, who recently made extensive purchases of hay from the Riverside mill. The schooner is loading ten timbers at Albert for St. John for James Duffy of New Ireland.

Mrs. Martha Webber, who has been a popular resident of Mountville for a number of years, is packing up preparatory to removing to Boston to reside. Mrs. Webber will be much missed.

The proprietors of the work on the Hopewell flats are taking unusually good hauls of coal and gaspauze.

Hopewell Hill, May 6.—The bark W. W. McLaughlin, with deals from Grey's Island, sailed for Preston last night.

Messrs. Goodwin finished sawing J. B. Russell's lumber out at Daniel's station today, the output aggregating a little over half a million feet. The mill will move this week to A. S. Milton's, where there are about half a million feet to saw, after which it will set up at Dry Brook to cut half a million or more there.

J. C. Wright and Chestley Smith of this place have purchased the steam rotary mill belonging to Dowling & Fletcher at Alma. The mill will be brought here and set up on the Memorial road.

Perley Milton, son of Samuel Milton of Demolisse Creek, fell a distance of 20 feet while working in the Albert Mills company's quarry yesterday, and sustained very severe injuries. His shoulder being dislocated, some ribs broken, and several bad cuts received on the head and face.

Donald Moore left for Halifax today to resume study at the Commercial college there.

C. I. Prescott's mill at Albert has begun sawing.

Hearing in the Scott case against Mrs. Dorcas A. Dewar of Riverside was continued here today before Justices Starratt and Peck, and resulted in a conviction against the defendant on the charge of keeping for sale, the usual fine of $25, with costs, being imposed. The case against Mrs. Downling for selling will come up.

A goodly company of the noble red men have been seen at the Shepards marshes the last week for some time, with fair success.

Hopewell Hill, May 2.—The Hopewell and Harvey district S. S. association held its quarterly meeting at German-town yesterday. The session was well attended. Rev. A. Lucas, field secretary, was present.

Mrs. Capt. Calhoun and her mother, Mrs. J. E. Sullivan, returned this week from St. John, where they have been spending the winter with Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Calhoun.

The Puget Sound Mail of April 18th contains a reference to the death at Mt. Vernon, Wash., of Mrs. W. J. Wells, daughter of Jas. B. Calhoun, formerly of Hopewell. The deceased, who was only in the 32nd year of her age, spent her early life in this village, and went west at the time of her marriage thirteen years ago. Death was due to pneumonia. Her many friends in this country will regret to hear of her early death. She leaves a husband and child, father, mother, and one sister, who have the sympathy of their numerous friends here in their deep bereavement. The Mail mentions as a curious coincidence that the deceased was born, married and died on the 13th of the month. She had also been married 13 years.

A dwelling house at Harvey Corner, owned by Capt. Edward Bishop and occupied by Frank White, together with barn and outbuildings, was totally destroyed by fire this afternoon. There was a great gathering of Adventists and their following at the Cape today, the intention being to institute a church there.

James O'Boyle, jr., is very low with consumption at his home at Chemical Road.

Hopewell Hill, May 7.—While Benj. Fales of Chemical Road was working in the quarry at the Albert Mills Co. at Hillsboro, his head and shoulders were so badly injured that it was feared at one time that he would be killed outright. This morning he was reported somewhat easier. Mr. Fales is an expert miner and very industrious man. This is the third accident that has occurred at this quarry this week.

The barkin. Haterpate arrived yesterday from Seattle. She will load deals at Hillsboro for Great Britain for J. L. Peck.

CHARLOTTE CO.

Deer Island, N. B., May 7.—Mrs. Adelle Wallace, widow of the late Wallace Wallace, died at the residence of her father, David McNeill, on the 29th ult. Deceased had been ill for about a week. The funeral took place on Friday at Glassville on Sunday, Rev. A. Williams of the F. C. B. church, officiating.

Rev. M. G. Ryan of the Dispersal church, went to Nova Scotia on Monday, to be absent three or four weeks. On returning he will bring his wife and with him take up his residence in Lord's Cove.

Dr. and Mrs. Murray are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son.

A few lobsters are being caught in this neighborhood, but so far they have not been very plentiful. Conley & Richardson, schooner, Edith M., sailed on the 5th to place a fish catch on the Bay of Fundy, and to bring back the catch of the various crews already at work.

Mail steamer Arbutus began her summer arrangement on Saturday, 2nd. The Island will now have three mails per week till November.

Leonard Bros. schooner, Electric Light, has returned from St. John after receiving repairs, and is now painted before commencing the fish carrying business again.

Grand Maan, May 6.—Mr. Burnham, member of the Burnham, Morrill Co. of Portland, arrived on the 1st inst. He was much pleased with their lobster packing establishment at Grand Harbor, which is doing a good business under the management of N. H. Cole. Lobsters are a fair catch and bring three dollars and five cents per ton for the cullings, and six and one half cents each for market lobsters.

Mr. A. Holmes of Campbell and N. H. Cole are engaged in a lobster war for the possession of the lobster fishery.

Mrs. Winnifred Benson and Burton Cook of Seal Cove were married by Rev. W. H. Perry on the 29th ult. Mrs. John McDonald, a sister of Isaac Newton, died at her residence at North Head, on the 4th inst. E. Gascon moved into his new store at North Head.

Scott Wooster, who was ill with scarlet rash and had to leave Mt. Allison college and return home, is getting around again.

KINGS CO.

Sussex, May 5.—Charles Bernard, a young man belonging to Richmond, Kent Co., while working at the portable saw mill owned by C. A. Jones at Hillsboro, in the parish of Upland, hand very seriously cut by a saw in the mill. The forefinger and thumb were completely severed from the hand as far as the wrist. Young Bernard was brought into Sussex last evening, when Dr. McNicol dressed the wound. He is doing as well as could be expected.

Havoclock, May 6.—Arbor day was generally observed in the schools here today. In the superior school Mr. Ryder and Miss Palmer, assisted by their pupils, did considerable tree planting, and at the noon hour the ladies of the village served a lunch in the school room. Albert McKnight and his pupils planted a number of trees, after which a game of ball was played in the gymnasium.

Posters have been out for some time announcing a political meeting for Wednesday evening, at which Col. Donville was to speak, and a large crowd gathered, but on a telegram stating that the speaker was unable to attend, the meeting was indefinitely postponed.

General satisfaction is expressed here at the nomination of Judge Morton by both conservative and prohibitory elements.

Miss Ada McNeill, formerly of the Island but for a number of years a resident of this place, has gone home to remain. She was accompanied by Merle McNeill.

Two candidates were baptized and joined the Baptist church last Sunday evening. The church factory is again in operation.

Apohaqui, May 8.—A social gathering at Percy settlement at the home of Isaac Frazer was enjoyed by upwards of fifty invited guests on the 1st inst., the occasion being the marriage of Henry Frazer and Miss Hannah Frazer. Rev. A. H. McLeod tied the knot, after which the joyful company sat down to a well loaded table.

The bride was the recipient of many and useful presents.

John E. McAuley of Lower Millstream has the contract to build a dwelling house for Noah E. Hicks, at McAuley's cottage.

There are some fine farms for sale on Millstream convenient to school, church, store, etc., and with a daily mail service.

Mechanic Settlement, May 6.—Robert Moore, who has had a gang sawing for the past few weeks, will finish today.

John Moore has purchased a beautiful black four-year-old colt from J. D. Bustard of Donegal.

There will be a pie social in the public hall on Saturday, May 9th, in aid of the Methodist parsonage at Elgin.

SUSSEX CO.

Shediac, May 8.—The district school that have been closed since Christmas holidays, have been opened this week, first of May, with Miss Elsie Stewart of Newcastle, Queens Co., in charge of the school at Little River, Shediac. Miss Perkins, from Fredericton, in charge of the school at Charles Cor. Miss Thompson of Fredericton has been engaged to take charge of the school at Lakeville Cor.

G. T. Bailey and family left the A. P. Thompson homestead this week along the shore of the French lake, and has taken up his residence in Fredericton, the former wife of his wife, and has taken charge of the department in Morrison's saw mill.

John Gallagher, one of our early teachers, is lying in a very critical condition.

Mr. Reynolds, bookkeeper of the Harris & Co. rolling mills, St. John, accompanied by his daughter, are spending a few days in Shediac just now, for the benefit of his wife. They are at the home of Thomas Burgess.

VICTORIA CO.

Andover, April 30.—The anxiety about the mill and the river over the time. Last Friday the river was running very rapidly, and just as it reached the ice went out, so that the water had to be raised up over the high water mark. The water had to be raised up over the high water mark. The water had to be raised up over the high water mark.

Jack Murray and wife have moved into the Graves' house opposite the depot.

On last Sunday sixteen converts were baptized at the railroad bridge here by Rev. Mr. Baker, who has since moved to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston, pitcher; B. Donoghue, first base; Thos. Segge, second base; A. R. Mowat, third base; Wm. Jenkinson, short stop; Rod McDonald, right field; O. Grant, center field; Henry Adair, left field. Challenges have been sent to Milltown and Woodstock teams for games at an early date.

Fredericton, May 8.—The most serious fire that has occurred here for months broke out between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. The fire broke out in the house of Mr. J. B. Johnston, who is now in Worcester, Mass. The members and their positions are as follows: Samuel Tracey, catcher; J. B. Johnston