CITY NEWS. The Chief Events of the Week in St John.

Together With Country Items from Correspondents and Exchanges

When ordering the address of your EEKLY SUN to be changed, send a NAME of the POST OFFICE to high the pspecific courses of the sender of the s four. Merchants and others who have had thich the paper is going as well as hat of the office to which you wish merchants and others who have had business dealings with Prof. Nesbitt, the French teacher, are getting anx-ious over his absence from the city. Frof. Nesbitt a week ago went away, leaving word with neighbors that he was going to Nova Scotia. Since then nothing has been based of him temember I The NAME of the Post lee must be sent in all cases to sure prompt compliance with your then nothing has been heard of him.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

News correspondence must be mailed in time to reach this office not later than Saturday afternoon a number of bills - (tlobe to ensure insertion in THE WEEKLY SUN of the following week. T. H. O'Blenus, one of the oldest and most respected residents of Church street, died at his residence last Sat-urday morning. His death had been expected for some time. He was near-Rev. T. F. Fullerton, the esteemed pastor of St. James church, will leave y 82 years of age and has been widely for Scotland on Saturday morning. He will return to Charlottetown about the 15th of September.—Examiner, Friday. nown for his integrity and close ap-dication to work. Rev. T. H. Blenus astor of the Christian church, Halifax, is the oldest son. Two sons,

The marine board of examiners Sat-Arthur and George, reside in this county.-Kentville Advertiser. urday granted masters' certificates to Amos C. Morris of Maitland, N. S., for foreign trade, and to Joseph G. Hains, Capt. Smith, R. N. R. held an enof Westport, N. S., for coasting trade. quiry in the city council chamber, Yarmouth, on Thursday, into the facts

The fine of $400 imposed upon the French s. s. Jules Theodore was de-posited with the collector of customs of the collision between the steamer City of St. John and a fishing boat some time ago, in which the two men in the boat were drowned. The evi-dence as published in the Yarmouth on Saturday. The steamer sailed for Rochefort yesterday morning.

News shows that the steamer altered Mrs. Thomas Temple, wife of Sen-ator Temple of Fredericton, arrived her course to avoid the boat, but the latter then tacked, and the result was a collision. Some seven' or eight in Falmouth on Tuesday evening from Halifax on a visit to her mother, Mrs. witne Cox .-- Kentville Advertiser. has not yet delivered judgment.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Hon. A. G. Blair, Lieut. Colonel J. J. Tucker, M. During the Orange celebration at Woodstock on Monday a horse ran away. The vehicle attached was in P., and Robert D. Noble have been away. The ventcle attached was in splinters in the course of a few sec-onds. The horse was dashing in the direction of a crowd in front of the Carlisle hotel when Edward Gilman elected Fellows of the Royal Colonial Institute.

The new river boat Victoria was successfully launched from McGuig-gan's yard, Courtenay bay, yesterday of Tower Hill, Charlotte county, caught him by the bridle and lifted himself upon the animal's back. The horse succeeded in throwing Mr. Gilinorning and was towed around to the Maritime Nail Works wharf to have man, but he held on find managed to her boilers put in.

stop the maddened steed. This prompt act on the part of Mr. Gliman prob-ably saved the lives of several peo-The framed dwelling house of Thos. Seaman at Fairfield, St. John county, was totally destroyed by fire last Thursday night. The building was insured for $500 in the Western Asple.

THE SUN PRINTING COMPANY, issuing weekly $,800 copies of THE WEEKLY SUN, challenges the circu-lation of all papers published in the Maritime Provinces. Advertisers, please make a note of this. G. J. Worden of Wickham, Kings Co., showed at the Sun office yester-day a box of very fine tomatoes, the first of the season, grown by himself. They will be for sale at E. Cosman's stall, City Market.

The August Delineator has been re-ceived by Macaulay Bros. & Co., King street. It is a superb number. The Michaelmas term of the Davenport school will begin 7th September. All interested will please refer to the advertisement in this paper on page

He came to St. John from Moncton and in his short stay here contracted ses were examined. The court

WOODSTOCK.

C. W. Munson of New York, who C. w. Mullion of New York, who has a large number of steamers on time charkers, has been in the city during the past few days. He will visit P. E. Island and some of the Gulf ports before returning to New York. York.

The causes of death reported at the board of health office for the week anding July 17th were: Consumption 2: cancer, 1; cellulitis, 1; pneumonia, 1; cholera morbus, 1; whooping cough. 1; fractured skull, 1; sarcoma of neck, 1; congestion of lungs, 1; necrosis superior maxillary, 1: total, 11.

To make your business pay, good health is a prime factor. To secure good health, the blood should be kept oure and vigorous by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. When the vital fluid is Elders R. S. Webber and G. E. Langdon, the Seventh day Adventists, evangelists, have been holding gos-pel meetings in St. Martins for a few weeks in a tent fitted up finely. The interest to hear what these men have to say has extended out for several miles around Sunday arening the niles around. Sunday evening the tent would not begin to hold all the people that came. Perfect order pre-vails in the tent and every one that comes seems to want to hear every word that is spoken by the elders.

Hon. Hugh H. Lusk, ex-cabinet minister of New Jealand, is at present in New Brunswick. Mr. Lusk, on his voyage of observation around the world, spent considerable time in the United States, studying out the position of the capital and labor question in that vast republic, and will in a few days return from his trip up the St. John river, to the Victoria hotel of this city, and will then visit Que-bec. Montreal and Ottawa, before continuing on his interesting journey.

A heavy thunder and lightning storm passed over portions of this province on Saturday. In some places In Charlotte county there was a heavy fall of hall. At Lower Cambridge, Queens county, lightning struck the McDonald homestead, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Fred McDonald. The bolt passed down from the roof, throwing one board several hundred feet. It ripped off the plaster in its path and finally tore away a door casing. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald were absent the house at the time.

Thursday night. The building was insured for $500 in the Western As-surance company. Among the newly appointed Ameri-can consuls are Raddiffe H. Ford of Maine at Yarmouth, N. S.; Charles A. McCullough of Maine at St. Ste-phen, N. B., and Delmar J. Vail of Vermont at Chaclottetown, P. E. I. The death occurred at the General Public Hospital Thurslay of James Lowe, from cancer, a well known car-penter and builder, residing on Broad street. Deceased was forty-nine years of age, and was very popular among his acquaintances.

ture, and the high esteent in which de-is held in the community. The ad-dress was accompanied by a purse of money containing about $125. The dress was accompanied by a purse of money containing about $125. The English church corporation, of which Mr. Cluff has been a member for many years, also presented him with an ad-dress. Mr. Cluff was much affected at the affection shown him and found some difficulty in controlling himself to make a reply. During many years past he has carried on the business Sarsaparilla. When the vital nult is past he has carned on the bushest impure and sluggish, there can be of a harness maker, and his work-neither health, strength, nor ambiton. manship has always been of the best. In earlier days he was connected with the town council, the fire department and the police force. His many and the police force. His many friends regret his departure greatly. Six boys, all under 16, James Hickey, Darius Thornton, Charles Embleton, Harry and Perley Smith were arrest-ed last night charged with breaking into the Carlisle hotel sample rooms and stealing some goods there display ed by J. Chayer, a traveller, repres-enting H. A. Nelson of Montreal. The boys will be tried tomorrow.

The president, shareholders and lady friends of the Maritime Pure Food Co. gave a most enjoyable hasket picnic on the factory grounds this afternoon. There was an excellent attendance of guests and the affair was profitable and enjoyable. After the repast brief addresses were made by the president, H. Paxton Baird, J. T. A. Dibblee, and C. L. Smith, M. P's, Mayor Hay, James Watts, T. C. L. Ketchum, A. Henderson, C. L. S. Raymond and Ven. Archdeacon Nealis and Mr. Green, the manager. A hear-ty vote of thanks was passed to the president, directors and ladies, and after the national anthem, the guests spent some time in inspecting the factory surroundings. A telegram from Mr. Blair, received here, says that Dr. Colter, ex-M. P., has been appointed post office inspec-tor, and W. T. Drysdale collector of customs at Woodstock. The order in council, it is said, only awaits the signature of the governor general.

ENGINEER ALLAN. Of the Steamer David Weston Seriously Injured Monday. A very serious accident occurred on the steamed David Weston early last Monday while being towed to Indiantown by the tug W. H. Murray in nsequence of the breaking of one her crank pins on the up trip.

her crank pins on the up trip. Just as the tug took hold of the Weston, Herman Allan, the chief en-gineer of the latter steamer, attempt ed to make a measurement of the broken pin. While thus engaged the disconnected, or port crank was swung around by the action of the water on the paddle wheel, and in its revolution struck him thelently on the back of every boys' suit at $2 or more; this is a great bargain as our Boys' Suits are certainly the greatest value in the province.

We have only 100 of these shirt waists left; they are the balance of our summer stock, and the prices were from 25c. to suc each.

Off course the first to buy boys' suits get the shirt waists.

Dark blue serge suits, and very pretty grey plaid tweed suits, all-wool; price, only $2.

All-wool, light and dark grey, and medium brown tweed suits, nicely made, and greatest service givers ever known; price, $2.25.

Stylish and serviceable, all-wool dark brown mixed tweed suits; only $2.50.

Hundreds of other suits at lowest known prices.

Suits for boys 11 to 15 years, from $3 up.

Tweed and serge suits for young men; $4.50 up very newest goods fashioned and finished just like made to order.

Men's Suits from $3.75 to $15.

D

0

Write to us and describe what you want, and we will be p'eased to give you prices. All mail orders filled same day as received, and in every case your money back if you want it.

RY

re, Hide

te No Other

DEPARTMENT. y J. W. Manchester.

St. John, N. B.

LY SUN takes pleasure ts readers that it has ements with J. W. . S., whereby all quesect to diseases of the will be answered by nent prescribed in those is asked for through the E SUN.

a must be addressed: ARY DEPARTMENT kly Sun, St. John, N. B.

a brown horse that nd strong. It took sick the body, breathed fast he last seemed to sweat died about four hours le commenced. What nt colic.

ere any remedy other will cure a spavin? and blistering is no treatment, but blisterrest will often effect a odide of Mercury.

ve a four year old colt ter crack. He is not afraid of it What ld you prescribe? I th a toe clip and keep shy pasture. He will have a pony that has er. There is quite a hat shall I do? He is a collar, although not not definite enough nt. Be more explicit again, or else consult inary surgeon. This e best plan. ow, eight years old, i milker, took sick ned paralysed, and and went to sleep.

leeping; died on the hat was the trouble the proper treatment ever. Bleeding, purg-water applied to the d back of the horns. al disease.

OTTETOWN.

Rather Than Appear in a t Act Case.

P.E.I., July 19.-John bed. A tin of Paris alcham recently ut 70 years of age. an old resident of oted suicide yester-the appetite, restore the bowels, promote, rulate all the bodily Pills are the best. ffective aperient, no er demand or more et manufacturer.-

to The Sun)

known as "Johnny committed suicide by een yesterday. Bal-ave given evidence in this morning. When nt after him he found ch about two spoonas found in his room. as opposed to Scott act cases and ther die inan do so.

t was prevented. He health for some time.

nded by the medical

t has become of Dauist who became faars ago from his ex-of the perfect female -Oh, he struck it g a position draw-

Fly Pads

ALL DRUGGI

The Amherst News stys that in no year have building operations been more active than at present. It mentions nearly thirty new buildings go-ing up, besides additions to others, the whole valued at about $65,000.

> Alex. L. Light, C. E., well known for his connection with the Intercol The railway, of which he was chief engincer during its construction between St. John and Shedlac, died on Monday at his summer home, Lac Croix, Que-

The will of the late Dr. Gray of Mahone Bay has been proven. It is understood that the doctor left an estate worth from $40,000 upwards. He leaves his two sons $663.33 each; and his daughter (Mrs.Dr.PoHey) $1,033.33; the balance of his estate to his widow and two youngest daughters.

D. G. Mott, mechanical superintend-D. G. Mott, mechanical superintend-ent of one of the Panama railways, who has been spending a few weeks with his brother, W. A. Mott, M. P. P., of Campbellton, left yesterday for New York en route to Panama. His brother came down with him to see him off. Friday evening a merry party of about fifty ladies and gentlemen drove out the Manawagonish road, stopping at the residence of Squire and Mrs. James Robinson. The reason for their call was that it was the thirtieth anhim off.

niversary of the happy couple's wed-ding. The visit was a surprise, but the party were cordially welcomed and made to feel at home. The result The Windsor hotel at New Glasgow has been leased by George F. Pyke, who has thoroughly renovated the house and made it one of the most attractive hotels in eastern Nova Sco-tia. Guests may be assured of a hearty welcome and good treatment by the new manage and made to feel at home. The result was a very pleasant evening. A boun-tiful supper was served and then Thomas White, on behalf of the as-semblage, presented Mr. and Mrs. Robinson with a handsome onyx table and lamp. Mr. White's speech was feelingly replied to by Mr. Robin-son, and there were brief addresses from several other guests, all of a con-gratulatory nature, and Mr. White sang a couple of Scotch songs. Danc-ing and after ice cream was served the party bade their host and hostess good night or good morning and drove back to the city. Hugh McQuinn, who came out from Scotland in the s. s. Warwick about a year ago, and who had been working in the Herring Cove stevedores, died very suddenly the other day. A physician who was called in, found that McQuinn died of cancer of the heart.

back to the city. The subject of the alumni medal at the U. N. B. for 1898 is the best Latin translation of the following passage: Seely's "Expansion of England." Mc-Millan & Co., 1894, 2nd course, lecture L, pp. 166 to 170, beginning with words 'I say" and ending with words "its William A. Shaw, son of William Shaw, M. P. P., was united in marri-age at Silver Falls on Wednesday evening to Miss Hattie Josseyin, daugh ter of Mosses Josseyin. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W B. Ten-nant. The bride was attended by Miss Gillen, while Evans Shaw was grooms man. The bride received many beau-tiful and useful presents.

Subscribe for THE WEEKLY SUN.

K YOUF grocer me ng life and prosperity.

able and Dairy, Purest and Best | Latest News in THE WEEKLY SUN. | not be far off.

as well as Mr. Clark for this addition to the park attractions. est cargo for her tonnage that has ever been sent out of this port. The John Hamilton, tather of James H. Hamilton of the customs department, died at 1.30 a. m. 17th inst. after a short illness at the age of seventy-nine years. Mr. Hamilton was a native of Ireland, and has been a resident of this city for over sixty years deceased was one of the ounders of St. John Presbyterian hurch on King street east, at that time known as the First Presbyterian church. For thirty years Mr. Hamilton carried on a bakery business in this city, retiring in 1877., A few years previous to this he was appointed flour inspector, and held that position up to the time of his death. Mr. Hamilton was one of St. John's oldest and best known citizens, and his death will be heard with the deepest regret. The Sun tenders its sympa-thy to the family of Mr. Hamilton in ty W. M. Mackay, was stowed by Stevedore John Collins. Capt. Riddick of the Rosefield has made many their sad affliction. friends here.

CHURCH DEDICATION.

(Hartland Advertiser)

he has no keel, bilge clogs having been substituted therefor. Her cargo aggregates 1,591 standards, including a lot of undimensioned stuff. This shows that the vessel carries 817-10 standards of lumber per 100 tons re-gister. The cargo, which was shipped

The new Free Baptist meeting house at Connell will be dedicated on the 25th instant. There are to be three services, preaching by Rev. Wm. Deware at 10.30; by Rev. John Perry at 2.30; by Rev. A. G. Downey at 7.30. The Free Baptist church at East Windsor, Carleton Co., will be dedi-cated to God on the third Sunday in August. This church is being built at a cost of one thousand dollars, and when finished will have a debt on it of about $300. Rev. G. A. Giberson, who has been pastor of the church have for seven years, has been invited to preach the dedication sermon. Rev. Atmos Havward will be fund as tos Hayward will be invited reach in the afternoon and Rev. J. J. Barnes in the evening.

NO FOOD FOR EIGHTEEN DAYS.

us, she is unable to utter a word

(Fredericton Herald.)

A very enjoyable event took place at the residence of Charles Emerson, Union street, Carleton, Thursday, his second daughter, Elizabeth, being united in marriage to Harry G. Smith, The illness of Mrs. Beek, wife of the ditor general, has attracted much attention, not only because of the sinunited in marriage to Harry G. Smith, a rising young business man of the west end, and a nephew of Albert C. Smith, ex-M. P. P. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Samp-son, rector of St. Gearge's church. The bride looked charming, and was attired in white silk, trimmed with roses, and carried a handsome bou-quet of roses. The presents were nu-merous and costly, and showed the high esteem in which the bride is held by her large circle of friends. Mrs. ere regret her numerous friends enertain at her serious condition, but also of the remarkable character of her case. On Dominion day, July 1st, she was stricken with paralysis and since that time she has not taken one norsel of food, only a few glasses of cold water, which she swallows with the greatest difficulty, her throat be-ing partially paralyzed. She has no craving for food, her digestive organs by her large circle of friends. Mrs. are paralyzed, and while perfectly con Smith was active in church work, aving been organist of St. George's, to her watching anxious friends. She has the use of one hand, however, and and the congregation presented her with a handsome silver water pitcher. with this she makes her wants known The bride's niece, little Miss Edith rson, acted as a maid of honor The groom's present to the bride was a diamon's broach. The young couple will reside on Winslow street. They have the best wishes of all for their with this she makes her wants kind a by writing on a slate. She is appar-ently suffering no pain, and sleeps comfortably some hours every day. Eighteen days without food will reauce the strongest person to a skele-ton, but it is only partially true in

Mrs. Beek's case. She is gradually weakening, however, and the end can-

S.S. Rosefield, Capt. Riddick, sailed ly on the back of the head and neck, knocking him down lest Friday for Cardiff with the largand dragging him until the crank left the certre and started to rise again. Allan in some way managed to crawl out to the door, where he was picked sefield, which is owned by Woods, Tylor & Bright of London is 1,959 tons up in a terribly mangled and bruised share. His face was gashed, all his false teeth broken, and his head and register. Her dimensions are:: Length, 325 feet; beam, 47 feet, and depth, 23 feet. Her carrying capacity exceeds neck painfully crushed.' He was 5,000 tons dead weight, yet she only draws 20 feet 6 inches. She is the quickly carried to a stateroom and She is th everything possible was done by Capt. Dingee to make him comfortable. finest tramp boat that has ever come here, being fitted with Blair's triple expansion engines. She is a web frame boat with wing stanchions, which give her additional strength.

Upon the steamer's arrival here about 8.30 o'clock, Drs. D. E. Berryabout 8.30 o'clock, Drs. D. E. Berry-man and T. Dyson Walker were sum-moned and the latter spent nearly the whole evening dressing the wounds. Dr. Walker says that no bones were broken, but that his neok and head are badly crushed, the injuries being most serious ones. Mr. Allan, who lives at 'the corner of Metcalf and Durham streets, is a man of about fifty years of age, and has been on the Weston for the last three years, previously to that being in the employ of Tapley Bros.

SUSSEX NEWS.

Sussex, July 19.-Rev. Fathers Lynch and Gannon, the Redemptorist missionaries who have been holding special meetings in St. Frances' church during the past week, celebrated mass this morning, after which they left to begin their work at Chipman, in Rev. Fr. Byrne's circuit, Queens county. While these meetings were very largely attended every day, they are credited with having accomplished much good while here and are followed by large numbers of friends. They expect to return in a few months hence.

About twenty ladies of the Sussex About twenty ladies of the Sussex bicycle club went out to the mountain well known as "the Bluff," in Dutch val-iey, the other day, and lunched and had a very pleasant time. They look-ed well in their procession and were very much admired by the spectators as they passed through the streets. Hon. Judge McLeod, R.W.W. Frink, Major T. E. Arnold and Robert Con-Hon. Judge McLeod, R.W.W. Print, Major T. E. Arnold and Robert Con-ley were the guests of Ora P. King, George Coggan and Frank L. Turts at the Squirrel Cot, and report having had a very pleasant time and the best of luck.

Mrs. Whalen of Sussex left for St. Martins today and will spend a few weeks with her sister, Miss Kate Ryan of that place

Stephen Taylor, who disposed of his farm on Smith's Creek some time since, has purchased a lot on the west of Sussex court house and erected a barn thereon and will soon begin the building of a new and substantial re-sidence for himself and family.

T. B. Blair, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, St. John, spent Sunday here, the guest of G. S. Moore, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia in Sussex. · · ·

Some catmeal millers who asked $3.50 on Saturday were asking $3.60 yesterday.

(From Daily Sun July 13th.) The Massachusetts Knights of Pythias, whose friendly invasion of the city has been anxiously looked the city has been anxiously looked forward to for some time past, was realized last evening when the I. S. S. Cumbertand, with fully one hundred knights and their ladies, arrived in the city. They were met on arrival by a company of uniform rank under Lieut. J. Fred Sullivan headed by the City Cornet band and escorted to their different hotels.

different hotels. The party is an extremely large one, and includes in addition to the numerous knights' and their ladies Major General Carnahan of Indian-apolis, Indiana, commander in chief of the order; Brigadier General McKin-ley of Manchester, N. H.; Past Su-preme Commander Richle of Lima, Ohio; Major A. B. Bastman of 1st battalion. No. 2 regiment, Boston; Cons; Major A. B. Bastman of 1st battalion, No. 2 regiment, Boston; Col. P. M. Foss, commander second regiment, Masachusetts; Col. Sargents of the Massachusetts brigade staff; Col. Perley Hunt, Major J. A. Press-cott of the brigade staff, Adjt. Ab-bott, 2nd regiment, Massachusetts; Bugler J. W. Lawson, Col. Sergt. J. J. Balrd, Capt. R. E. McFarlane, Bos-ton Co. No. 15; Lleut, C. E. Stanwood, Boston Co. No. 15; Quartermaster G. W. W. Morse, 1st regiment, Worces-ter, Mass.; Sergt. E. G. Wilkinson, Hub Co. No. 15; E. G. Wilkinson, ter, Mass.; Sergt. E. G. Wilkinson, Hub Co., No. 4, Boston; Sergt. D. E. Pease, Boston Co., No. 15; Past Cap-tain Kesselhuth, Hub Co., No. 4; Past Captain J. W. McBrine, Boston Co., No. 4; Lieut. T. J. Kelley, Veteran Fusiliers association, Boston; Lieut. I. Grishaver, 1st battalion, 2nd regi-ment, Boston; Lieut. Aaron, J. A. Fox Co., No. 18; Boston, and J. C. Berry, Converse lodge, No. 75, Maiden, Mass. With the knights is the excellent Mansfield band of Muplewood, Mass. consisting of fully twenty-five men under the leadership of Eben Mans-field with A. E. Grant as drum major. The latter gentleman is the peer of

The latter gentleman is the peer of all drum majors in the state and has few equals in America. The party left Boston Monday morning and had a somewhat unpleasant trip down. At Portland, Me., they expected to have been joined by a number of Maine knights, but in this they were disappointed. Last evening while the visitors were

Last evening while the visitors were partialing of the excellent repast pro-vided by the different hotels Union lodge, No. 2, installed the following officers: Fred Ferguson, C. C.; Henry Duffell, V. C.; Harrison Kinnear, pre-late; F. A. Peters, jr., M. of W.; H.

B. Robinson, K. of R. and S.; E. C. Wilson, M. of E.; F. S. Estey, M. of F.; S. W. McMackin, M. at A.; H. C. own, I. G.; W. A. Stewart, O. G. The installing officers were Acting Deputy Chancellor Commander A. Dodge, who was assisted by Acting G

Dodge, who was assisted by Acting G. M. at A. P. C. LeB. Wilson, and Act-ing Grand Prelate Deputy Eustan Immediately after the concl

the installation of officers, a reception was tendered the visiting Knights, was tendered the visiting Knights, who were present in fatigue uniform. Col. James Moulson occupied the chair, with Major General Carnahan on his right and Past Supreme Chan-cellor W. Richie on his left. Col. Moulson delivered a very cor-dial address of welcome and was fol-number of Union Jacks, with "Old Glory" in the center. Over the C. C. chair in the room was drapped the two flags and over the V. C. chair a portrait of the Queen drapped with the colors. 5 CARS GOODS LANDING. HEAVY FEED, BRAN. FLOUR, OATS and CHICAGO MASH

JAMES COLLINS, -- 210 UNION ST. ST. JOHN, N. B.

RESIDENCE FOR SALE. A Freehold Lot with Dwelling House and Barn thereon, situate at Hampton Station, Kings Co.—a desirable summer residence. Apply to MONT McDON-ALD, Barrister, St. John, N. B.

FOR SALE.-Mower and Rake, Frost & Wood make; Buckeye Mower, used two sea-sons; Tiger Rake, used one season, only raked 16 tons hay; will be sold very low, separately or together. Apply to B. V. MILLIDGE, Millidge Lane, Rockland Road, St. John, N. H.

GREAT OFFER TO AGENTS.-Write for our price list. Best house, best work; lowest prices of any portrait house in Canada. MERCHANTS PORTRAIT CO., 46 Rich-mond street West, Toronto. 724

WANTED.-A Third Class Teacher Rowena school, District No. 7, Perti-commence first of term. Apply to HE BCONE, Secretary of Trustees, Roy Victoria Co., N. B

1-10/12 19/15 PEINT ter a Patent, " What profitable to inven ON & MAR Milling, Bo St. Ja Birm of Grad

Mt. Allison Academy

Commercial College.

SACKVILLE, N. B.

The First Term of the 55th year of this well-known Educational Institution com-mences Sept. Ind. 1897. Those wishing to prepare for Matricula-tion or obtain a sound

English, Classical or

Commercial Education

in a Healthful Locality should apply to the Principal for a Calendar.

JAMES M. PALMER, M. A.,