REASON Nº 2.

Because it is tested by skilled tea tasters.

Tea tasting can well be called one of the fine arts. A man who can taste several hundred cups of tea a day, and, by his keen senses, detect the slightest difference between them, and who, blindfolded, can tell where each and every tea was grown, not only the country, but the particular district, and often the very plantation -such a man is the professional tea taster.

The head man in my tea room, Mr. W. R. Miles, is a master in his profession. He learned the business in London, Eng., and is a tea taster by right of birth, as both his Father and Grandfather were tea tasters. It came natural to him and he is recognized as one of the best judges of tea in America.

He and his assistants do nothing but taste the teas, and superintend the blending.

RED ROSE TEA is the result.

The house met at three o'clock. The preliminary business was quickly disposed of and the orders of the day posed of and the orders of the day posed of and the orders of the day called, when Mr. Flemming said: I do not propose to detain the house at It would be of extreme interest to the do not propose to detain the house at any great length, as the subjects of the provincial finances has been pretty well discussed. Hon. members must have noticed the changes in the line of the prime minister's address. The glowing charm with which he began this creech was limst convincing, but the would be of extreme interest to the cuptive to know what the government does with the surplus claimed from year ago, on account of his health.

The function of the prime minister's address. The glowing charm with which he began the country to know what the government does with the surplus claimed from year ago, on account of his health.

The function of the prime minister's address. The glowing charm with which he began the country to know what the government does not have a prime minister of the prime mini twards the close he became petukent and boastful. Much has been said in this house about the development of the Grand Falls water power. The members of the government boast as though they had created the falls and contributed that great natural resource to the province. They derive consolation from the fact that a company which has been given great privileges at the falls have made the necessary deposit as required by law. I shall be very glad to see this enterprise carried to a successful issue.

The premier took much credit to him they far the colose of the fissial show that instead of a $15,000 surplus, the province has really a deficit of $150,000.

Under the dead of executive government is something like this: Hon. F. J. Sweeney, $660; Hon. A. T. Dunn, surveyor general, $1,00; salary as surveyor general, $650; travelling expenses, $1,100; salary as surveyor general, $650; travelling expenses, $1,100; travelling towards the close he became petulent report is so intricate that the members of the government themselves can scarcely glean therefrom the true state of the province's finances. The premer's reference to the bye-elections was particularly belligerent. I shall not discuss the question except to refer briefly to those in Westmorland and Carleton. I should not have adverted to this at all had the premier not in a moment of anger attacked us last night. We in Carleton county would have been glad to have allowed the new solicitor general to have taken his honors unsopposed, to show our esteem of him as a gentleman and a man well thought of in the country. But because we did of in the country. But because we did mously vote to send the money back, this we are accused of cowardice by which was done. this we are accused of cowardice by the premier who says that we dare not put up a fight. Generosity seems lost on the premier and the gentlemen opposite, and I can tell him here and how that we will not treat him nor the government so generously another time. I am ready to meet the government in a fair fight at any time and tell the premier and the government that whenever the constituency of Carleton is again open it will be no walk-

In regard to the cuestion of education, it is one thing to talk glowing generalities and autother to do something of importance to better the system. SUDDEN DEATH OF REV. W. C. MATTHEWS

Well Known Methodist Clergyman Fasses Away.

Kis Death Was Accelerated by the Shock of His Mother's Decease A Few Days Ago.

The news of the death of Rev. W. C. Matthews, which took place early this morning at his home, 219 Rockland road, will come as a shock to the reverend gentleman's many friends, and to the community at large.

His death followed closely upon that of his mother, whose funeral took place at Titusville the day before, and it is thought that the shock of her death may have hastened his own. Mr. Matthews was taken very ill last night about nine o'clock, convulsions followed and shortly after midnight he had passed away. He had been in poor health for some time.

Rev. Mr. Matthews was a son of the late A. G. and Mrs. Matthews, of this city. He was only thirty-eight years of age and leaves besires his wife one little daughter, Dorothy, eleven years of age. His wife was the daughter of the late Hon. James McDonald, of Wolfville. Deceased was received on trial in the Methodist ministry in 1889, and was taken into full fellowship and ordained in 1893. He had labored with great acthe present administration, with a large increase in revenue, yet the debt ceptance in the following circuits, all within the bounds of the conference of New Brunswick and P. DR. SPROULE ON SEPARATE SCHOOLS.

Orange Leader Vigorously Opposes Government.

Night - Monk Favors the Original Bill.

OTTAWA, March 23.-The line of cleavage between the government and opposition was unmistakably drawn by Borden yesterday when he planted nself on the rock of provincial rights. Fielding was put up to answer Borden, and he did so in a manner not creditable to a statesman, but with adroitness that a political leader attains by long practice. Fielding's appeal was to race and religious prejudice, under the cloak of assertion that as the opposition could not form a cabinet to handle the school question, Canarms of Michael Strogoff, and, turning ada's safety and permanency depended in keeping Laurier at the helm. In his zeal Fielding slopped over and gave, Dr. Sproule of East Grey, who resumed the debate this afternoon, a chance to show that the finance minister and the premier took widely different views in their arguments. (Hear, hear.) Mr. Meanwhile, arrived at the banks of the Dinks, just opposite Briskoe, they stopped there one day. Michael Strogoff sought out the place where he had interred near Nichaels. Fleiding had said that it had been turnthe bill, which promoted these acrim onious feelings. NATURAL HISTORY AT HOME.

The ladies of the Natural History Society had a pleasant reunion in the negative. It must be borne in mind that I am concerned only with the question of legal obligation. What the parliament ought to do or should do in the exercise of any power which they may possess is not within the province of counsel. Such a restriction, I apprehend, must exist, or may be imposed, if at all, under the provisions of sec. 93 of the B. N. A. Act, 1867, and on the ground of their application to the provinces now to be formed. If that section applies it would neem to require no enactment of our parliament to give it effects. Society had a pleasant reunion in their rooms yesterday afternoon. There was a combination of science and cake so far as I am aware, is otherwise made and office. The guests, of whom there necessary. Because fabulous sums are spent in advertising, some merchants think that it costs a fortune to keep any business before the public. They do not stop to think that advertising space can be bought like cloth, or lard, or soap—in any desired quantity, as one's business may deall store on the corner selling groceries from a small store on the corner doesn't need as much space as a big dry goods doesn't need as much space as a big dry goods store. But the proper space is just as essential to the best results in his business as is the big store's big ad. It doesn't cost much to buy a small space in the "St. John Star"—a space that is suitable for an unpretentious business And, after all, it's not the size of the space, but what you put in it that counts. Start off with a little space, use it well and you'll need a big one by and by. Telephone No. 25 brings a representative.
