Jones nd his excellent orchestra of six pieces have been engaged by the management and as Mr. Jones' past record shows he is one of our foremost musicians, every member of the orchestra is past master on his respective instrument. Of course the regular bill of motion pictures are also on the list. It will be well for all to be early Monday night, and thus avoid the great crust that is imminent.

NICKEL'S GREAT SHOW FOR

One of the interesting sights in St.
John is a Nickel show. Indeed, it is more than seeing; it is hearing, laughing, applauding. Today a special effort is being put forth to give visitors a whole dollar's worth for a fivetors a whole dollar's worth for a five-cent piece. Here's what is going to be on the programme, from 10 a. m. until 10.30 p. m.—twelve and a half solid hours of enjoyment: The great British war picture, "Can Germany Beat England"—a mimic repulse of invading foreigners by the English Army and Navy. Then there is the great Indian Mutiny drama, "The Moonstone" or the jewel-eye of Budnonstone" or the jewel-eye of Buddah. Comedy pictures as well. Holmes & Buchanan, the matchless singing duet, will put on a lovely musical sketch entitled "An Evening With The Old Folks at Home"—in other words, a lot of dear old-time selections. Time ot of dear old-time selections. Tiny Pat Harrington, the seven-year-old midget comedian is to sing two of Harry Lauder's best songs, "Rob Roy Mackintosh" and "She's Ma Dalsy." Then the orchestra will play in the evening and throughout the day there will be something doing all the time. This is a great bill, whole hour of entertainment in a large well-ventilated theatre. In the evening the doors ated theatre. In the evening the doors will be open at 6.30 o'clock to accommodate the crowds.

THE CRICKET ON THE HEARTH

AT H. H. H. form so vivid that one can almost imagine themselves viewing the actual Dickens' character. This is one of the famous Biograph pictures, and is acted and staged as are all Biograph pictures—perfect. In addition two funny comedies will be shown. Mile. Berini will sing Cunid and L. from the musical edies will be shown. Mile Berini will sing Cupid and I, from the musical comedy, The Serenade, a very catchy number, and Signor Berini will sing Good Night, Beloved, Good Night, an old favorite of everybody's. If today's parade takes place the H. H. H. has parade takes place the H. H. has arranged to have pictures of the parade taken and these will be shown on the screen tonight. Visitors to the city should not miss going to St.John's leading picture house. It will be open today from 2 to 5 and from 7 to 10.30, and the admission is five cents.
