These are all well equipped institutions, and their courses of study are well arranged. Their influence has been marvellous in elevating the people. And yet such has been the jealousy of Northern interference that they have not had the warm sym- pathy of Southern white Baptists. They have had the support of the North, but not that of the South, and this they have needed. Of course, inasmuch as Northern Baptists provide the money, they have to supply the control. Control goes with money. But under the agreement made a committee will be appointed by the Southern Baptist Convention to co-operate with each of these institutions and give them their support, to seek aid for them in the South and to recommend to the North- ern Society what shall be done for their advantage. As Dr. Noah K. Davis said to the conference of the committee, instead of being forts in an enemy's country they would be institutions of learning in the midst of friends. They will seek and receive the gifts as well as endorse- ment of Southern white Baptists, and with those gifts will come proportion- ate authority in their management. It is simply beautiful that this arrange- ment was made without any conflict and with the harmony of absolute unanimity, although there were repre- sented on the committee the most pro- nounced Northern and Southern men. It proves the dying out of the fires of discord. This unity of action is a step towards unity of organization."

Dedication at Granville Centre.

BRIDGETOWN.—Our new house of wor- ship at Granville Centre, was opened on the 4th, and was a day long to be remembered by us. It was a pleasant November day, and at an early hour people were seen wending their way to the place of prayer. At 11 o'clock the dedicatory service was opened by the choir singing the appropri- ate hymn, "All hail the Power of Jesus Name," after which the pastor invoked the blessing of the Lord upon the service. The dedicatory prayer was offered by pastor J. G. Coulter White, of Annapolis, and the dedicatory ser- mon was preached by Rev. J. W. Man- ning, of St. John, from Ps. 84: 1. It was an able and eloquent presentation of the Truth, and all were delighted as the preacher showed that the Church was the place where souls may receive (1) Pardon, (2) Peace, (3) Spiritual Strength (4) Spiritual Joy. After the sermon the pastor gave the hand of fellowship to three sisters whose coming in with us will be a source of strength and en- couragement to us. It seemed to be the fitting thing that as the house was being dedicated that some should be found to come in, and dedicate them- selves with us to the service of the Lord. In the afternoon Rev. B. Giles (Metho- dist) preached from II Chron. 6: 17, and in the evening Rev. R. S. Whidden (Presbyterian) preached from Joshua 3: 18. In this closing service the pas- tor spoke in very high terms of praise, of the builder and contractor Des. Joseph, F. Bent of Springfield, and called upon him for a few parting words, to which Bro. Bent responded in a very delicate and fitting way. Our church building is one of which we may be justly proud as it is a perfect little gem in appearance. It is 52x28 with a vestry 20x14 in the front and opening into the main audience room by folding doors. Over the vestry there is a gallery which may be used when required. The audience room will seat about 150 and in all about 300 people. We trust our new house may be the birthplace of many souls to the honor of the Master's name.

Shelburne County Quarterly Meeting.

The Baptists of Shelburne County held the regular session of their quar- terly gathering with the church at Os- borne, Nov. 6th and 7th. Ten churches were represented by about thirty dele- gates, while something over one hun- dred came as visitors. Five ordained ministers were present. On Tuesday evening a very large gathering turned out to hear a sermon on the Bible from Rev. J. W. Carpenter. The excellent discourse was followed by a social meet- ing in which nearly one hundred took part, and the spiritual power which is present in all of these assemblies, was manifested to the glory of God and the blessing of his people. Wednesday morning at nine o'clock a consecration meeting was conducted by Deacon Fre- man Dunlop, of Sable River. Again we received evidence that we were on the flood tide of spirituality. In the business meeting that followed, the six resolutions looking to closer relations between the Home Mission Board and the District organization, which were passed by the Board and endorsed by the Convention, was accepted. But the Seventh resolution which was added by the Convention, was unanimously re- jected. The old officers were all re- elected. It was also ordered that future sessions of the quarterly meeting be extended to a day and a half. In the afternoon Rev. A. Osborn gave a fine address on education. The sisters then took charge, and very interesting addresses were given on Aid Society work by Mrs. N. B. Dunn, Mrs. A. F. Browne, Mrs. Howard Dunlop and Mrs. David Doleman. The experience meeting, as usual, proved the special event. It was conducted by Deacon Augustus Freeman. In an hour and a quarter over two hundred either took part or by rising indicated that they would have spoken if there had been time. The fragrance of this heavenly meeting will not grow less through all eternity. In the evening Rev. A. F. Brown preached to an audience that completely filled the sanctuary, and the exercises closed by a glorious evangel- istic service, led by Rev. N. B. Dunn. Pastor Dunn will continue the work in special meetings. The next session will be held with the Sand Point church thesecond Tuesday and Wednes- day in February. A collection of $9.35 was taken for denominational work.

Literary Note.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.—Henry Loomis Nelson contributes to the November Harper's a delightful article, entitled "At the Capital of the Young Repub- lic," in which he offers glimpses of official life at Washington at the begin- ning of the century, investing with all the charm of witty and vivid narration a period of real interest. The initial article in the same number has also an American theme, and treats of by-gone days—the days when sea-robbers of New York carried on what they termed the Red Sea Trade, regarding it as a business rather than as a crime, and "agreeable and companionable pirates" (in a town that may still, unfortunately, count among its officials "agreeable and companionable" persons who regard robbery as a business rather than as a crime), are described by Thomas A. Janvier.

CHARLESTOWN.—We received two into the church last Sunday—Brother John McKeezie and Sister Carrie Welsh, the former by baptism, the latter by letter from Summerside.

Nov. 9. C. W. Corey.

FREEPORT, DORSET CO., N. S.—Since the removal of its late esteemed pastor, Rev. E. P. Coldwell, this church has been without pastoral oversight, and now desires to secure the services of a good minister.

CUMBERLAND BAY, N. B.—Sins writing last we have received three others by baptism viz, Misses Mabel Perry, Eugene Stewart and Eleanor Barker. Our special services have closed, but others are disturbed. May God bless and save. S. D. Ervine.

Nov. 8. BEAR RIVER.—According to the good hand of the Lord upon us, it is our privilege to report a well sustained in- crease in all our services. The baptisms for September and October have been seven. This public confession of be- lievers in Christ month after month with more or less regularly efforts much encouragement and comfort to the church. B. N. NOBLE.

Nov. 2. BRIDGEWATER.—On the evening of Nov. 5th our town friends gave us a genuine surprise in the shape of what is known as a "round party"—the most comfortable and enjoyable of all. Remember of having had, and like all "roundings" that have for their aim the good of the individuals operated upon, made us feel that we were the better for it. We therefore expressed our sincere gratitude to our benefac- tors. J. W. BROWN.

EAST POINT, P. E. I.—We are still holding special services here and the Lord is abundantly blessing our labors. Last Sabbath we had the pleasure of again baptizing our baptists, who were buried three strong men according to the command of our Lord. In the evening we gave the hand of fellowship to five. Others are interested, and we expect to baptize again next Sabbath. We thank God and take courage. A. C. SHAW.

Nov. 6. MAHORS BAY.—Baptized at New Cornwall, Oct. 7th, Sister Della Halli- more. The church at this section of my field only receives one preaching service each month, and keeps up its own prayer and B. Y. P. U. meetings unaided. During the summer months the exterior of the church building has been newly painted. Bro. Simeon Spidel, lic., who has been home on vacation from Acadia, has rendered efficient and very acceptable service. We are hoping for good times during the coming year. H. S. SHAW.

Nov. 7. URG, P. E. I.—Since we last reported our church has enjoyed a season of re- freshing from the presence of the Lord. Sunday, October 7th, Samuel McLeod, Alexander McLeod, and John McLeod, George Jardine and Jennie Jardine were baptized into our fellow- ship by Pastor J. W. Kierstead, and these, with Sister Jessie Munroe, who had previously been baptized, received the hand of fellowship Sunday, Oct. 25th. Brother James W. Judson was baptized and received into the Alexandria church Sunday, Oct. 21st.

Nov. 6. ARCADIA, Yarmouth Co., N. S.—Ray Cornwell, a lad of seventeen years, son of Deacon Samuel Cornwell, and great- grandson of Rev. Aaron Cornwell, was baptized and received into the Acadia church on Sunday, Oct. 21st. Our young brother is a very promising youth, and we hope that in the near future he will see his way clear to enter into the ranks of success, which are open to him at Wolfville. Our friends will be pleased to learn that the Acadia and South Yarmouth churches have purchased a parsonage.

Nov. 2. JOSEPH WEBB.

For Worms in Children—Cherokee Vermifuge.

ANNANDALE P. E. I.—A few days ago we began work at this place. The Lord is blessing the work. Already over 30 have requested prayer—some crying to God for mercy. We are looking to the Saviour for a large blessing. We find opposition just now. Pray for us that God may be glorified and sinners saved here. J. A. MARPLE.

Oct. 30, 1894. ISAAC'S HARBOR.—REV. A. J. VINCENT writes: "Have just closed first month's labors with Isaac's Harbor church, but, thank the Lord, not without seeing the workings of His saving grace in the hearts of the people. Sunday, Nov. 4th, had the pleasure of burying four happy converts with Christ in baptism. God sent His seal to His own ordinance, which speaks volumes more than any sermon. In the evening twelve others asked for prayer. There is every ap- pearance of a great outpouring of the Spirit of God."

Nov. 5, '94. KINGSTON.—The little church at Kingston is holding on its way although not enjoying so much of the divine blessing as we desire. There are a number who are hoping and praying for an enlarged measure of the Spirit's power, and we are long to see the outpouring from above, and that the hearts of God's people will be greatly revived and refreshed. A goodly number par- took of the memorial of a Saviour's love on the past Sabbath, and felt the comfort of His presence. The church has just furnished themselves with a new and handsome communion service. S. M.

REINHOLD, SOUTH.—The Woman's Aid Society of this place held a sacred concert in the Baptist meeting house, McKeezie Corner, on Tuesday evening, the 23rd of October. Several choice pieces of music of a missionary char- acter were most charmingly rendered by a "strong choir." There were also many recitations, principally by young girls. The recitations were all on the subject of missions, and were well spoken. Near the close the writer gave a brief address on the history and work of the W. B. M. U. A collection of $12.50 was taken for the objects of the society. CALVIN COBB.

CLEMENTSVILLE, N. S.—On the first Sunday of this month two joined us by letter and three by baptism. Others intend doing likewise. We have quite regular additions by baptism and letter, which is an encouraging feature of the work here. While we pray and labor for larger results, we are grateful for these tokens that we are not forgotten by the Giver of all good. We intend holding extra services at different out- stations on the field. There are many more who owe themselves to the Saviour. We pray they may become conscious of it. E. A. ALLARY.

HAMPTON.—The Lord's work is prosper- ing here under the ministry of our esteemed pastor, the Rev. Geo. Howard. All the services are largely attended and the interest is increasing. Last Sabbath he preached according to ap- pointment on temperance to a crowded house, and the people were not dis- appointed, for they heard a sermon that cannot easily be forgotten and one that will be a great benefit to the temper- ance cause in Hampton. Brethren, pray for us that many may come and ask the question, "What shall I do to be saved?" H. B. DICKSON.

Nov. 4. BASS RIVER.—The largest conference ever enjoyed by this church was held last Saturday. Eleven were received for baptism, and on Sunday morning the following obeyed Christ: Adam Lewis, Prescott Lewis, John Brown, Aggie Brown, Charlie Welch, Gordon Crowe, Flora Young, Maggie Geddes; Page Fletcher, Mrs. Page Fletcher, Evalena Fletcher, a household. Praise the Lord! The most of those called came from Upper Economy, where we have enjoyed the presence and power of the Holy Spirit. There are more to follow. We think we can see why God's hand is restrained to remain with these dear people. C. P. WILSON.

Nov. 6. ANNANDALE, P. E. I.—The Word of the Lord is proving a Saviour of life unto life unto many in this place. Twenty-one were received on experi- ence. Others have professed faith in the Saviour, and a large number have requested the prayers of Christian peo- ple. The Lord is good; may we have greater faith in him. Rev. Mr. Kid- son, who has been pastor of this group of churches for some time, has been up as a few nights. His heart is in the work. For some time he has been suffering from the effects of a gripe, and has been advised by physicians to remain quiet for a while. We trust that he may yet be permitted to resume the work that is dear to his heart. Yours in the work. J. A. MARPLE.

Nov. 6. NEW GLASGOW, N. S.—It was our privilege to visit the baptismal water on Sunday morning, Nov. 4th, and ad- minister the ordinance to three con- verts—two young men and one young woman. The professed conversion during a recent series of meetings con- ducted at their home, Westville, by Evangelist Melkie. We are grateful to the Lord for the identification of these young people with His church in N. G., and we are praying that others who ought to obey their Lord may come at once and give "the answer of a good conscience toward God." The brethren here are struggling bravely to estab- lish the truth as taught in the New Testament in this locality. In order to place themselves in a better position to do the Lord's work and meet the needs of the church in this town and vicinity, they have sold the present location of their meeting house and have purchased a more central one. And they pur- pose in the early spring to move the old meeting house to the new location and remodel it, unless the Lord puts it into the heart of some of those to whom He has entrusted His cash to aid them in building a new house. That this may be the case we sincerely hope and pray. If the Lord's rich only knew the im- portance of this church, a centre from which to disseminate God's Word, they would deem it a great privilege to help the brethren here. We are deeply grate- ful to the individuals and Sunday- schools who have responded to our ap- peal. We expect to make a more specific mention of this later. W. T. S.

ALBERT COUNTY.—Rev. Jas. Wallace writes: "I spent the month of Oct. in Albert, my native county. I have al- ready made reference to my visit to Harvey and need only say further that I leave with pleasure that the newly settled pastor, Rev. P. C. Wright, is making an excellent impression and that his prospects for a successful pas- torate are good. I spent one Sabbath at Hillsboro, supplying for Rev. W. Camp, who was away on his vacation. It was exceedingly pleasant for me to visit my friends and kindred here, especially as here slumber the mortal re- mains of my parents. Here my in- stant father made his profession of faith in Christ and his first effort as a preacher of the Gospel, and was here ordained to the Christian ministry. I was glad to find brother Camp well en- trenched in the confidence and love of his people. The record of this dear old church is certainly most gratifying. Colonies have been sent out to Dawson Settlement, Baltimore, Caladonia, Cape Den- sell, Stony Creek and Surrey. Each of these colonies is somewhat vigorous. Colville is pastor of the three first mentioned, and I am glad to learn he is doing prosperously. Rev. Mr. Cornwall, who has his resi- dence in a beautiful parsonage at Surrey, is clearly "at the commanding point." The old mother, instead of giving evi- dence of decrepitude is renewing her age. Perhaps never in her history has she shown more evidence of prosperity than now, as evinced by the large con- gregations, prosperous Sunday schools and well equipped young people's so- ciety. The last Sabbath in the month I spent in Hopewell, supplying for Rev. B. N. Hughes, who has for several years been the pastor of the Hopewell work by a severe illness. His troubles have been intensified by the dangerous illness of his wife. B. B. I am thank- ful to say are now convalescent, and brother H. hopes soon to be able to resume his labors. I was greeted with large and intelligent congregations in the morning in the pleasant little town of Albert, in the afternoon at Hopewell Hill, and in the evening at the Cape. The drive up from Albert to the Cape is marvellously beautiful. The broad dyke-lands make this one of the finest farming districts in the province. If the Hopewell church, like that of Hills- boro would colonies, it might be well, as there seems to be too much work for one man. Bro. Hughes has served the Hopewell church quite a number of years and enjoys the sympathy and confidence of his people. I spent four days of last week helping brother Corn- wall at Stony Creek, one of his sta- tions. Much blessing accompanied our united efforts. As the result five promising converts were baptized last Sabbath by brother Cornwall and pre- bably as many more will follow their Lord next Sabbath. Brother C. is much encouraged in his work and is deserv- ingly beloved by his people. Nov. 2. L. WALLACE.

PERSONALS. We are pleased to learn that Rev. J. W. Springer, who has been down with fever has, in a good measure recovered his health. Rev. E. Osgood Morse supplied the Leinster St. church pulpit on Sunday last. We hear that his sermons were highly appreciated. Rev. A. B. McDonald, of Jernag, who was in the city last week, is looking well and feels encouraged at the result of special services lately held on his part in which he was assisted by evan- gelist Young. Twenty-six have been added to the church by baptism.

The New York Examiner's Colorado correspondent, writing concerning things in Denver, alludes to the irra- tional services lately held at the Capital Hill church, of which Rev. G. W. Wil- liams, late of St. Martins, N. B., is now pastor. Mr. Williams is spoken as "a young, energetic man who has al- ready won the love of his people and begins his labors in one of the best fields in Denver."

ACKNOWLEDGMENT. Allow space to acknowledge the kind- ness of the friends at North Kingston, who gave us a pleasant surprise on the evening of Friday the 2nd inst, and after spending a time in social con- versation retired, leaving us numerous tokens of their thoughtful consider- ation for our temporal needs, and great- ly augmented stores in cedar and lar- der. For these and many other evidences of their regard and interest we hereby tender our most sincere thanks, and pray that the donors may receive ten- fold in both temporal and spiritual property. The following letter received from our esteemed brother, Dea. Alexander Scott, of East Point, P. E. I., is so inter- esting that it deserves to be widely read. It may be stimulating reading to many persons just at this time of need. The different Boards are feeling the keenest pressure in meeting their obligations. Especially is this true of the Foreign Mission Board. Brethren, do not forget us in your plans for appropriating your offerings to the Lord's cause.

DEAR BRO. M. OSBORN.—

Enclosed you will find $10, a gift to Mission from Alex. Fraser and his two sisters. This is a part of the money which fell to them at the death of their sister, who died last May. Go and let the always look an active part in the Lord's work, and give largely to His cause. Within the last year or two of her life her mind had become weakened and she did without a will. From a knowledge of her past, her brother and sisters thought she would like to have her money used in this way and so have given this amount to missions to be appropriated in the following manner:

Christie Fraser—H. M. $15, F. M. $15, N. W. $15, Grand Ligne $5, Isabelle Fraser—H. M. $5, F. M. $5, Alex. Fraser—H. M. $10, F. M. $10, N. W. $10, Grand Ligne $5. Total, $110.

Yours in Christian love, DEA. ALEX. SCOTT.

No comment is specially needed. Are there not a goodly number of the Lord's people who will "go and do likewise?" J. W. MARSH.
