One man was pinned by the feet between two coaches and slowly roasted to death, although the rescuers worked with burned and bleeding hands in their work of mercy.

One passenger cabled to friends in England that his wife, two children and lurother were among the dead, and their dog was dying of burns.

One young man was pinned in the wreckage, being caught just above the knees. Just as the workers had nearly freed his the top of the car, eaten away by fire, fell, and he thrust his would be rescuers away, saying. "Save yourselves it is too late for me." Fire wiped out every vostige of identification.

As soon as the wreck became known, doctors and a wrecking train were rushed to the seene from all parts of the division, and the work of caring for the injured is being well looked after. Of the large number of these only two will have to go into the hospital, and these are now here. A train with the wrecked passengers arrived about moon. General Superintendent Brady, of the C. P. Charlottetown, P. E. I., April 8—
Thomas McQuaid, aged fifty-two, boot and shoe dealer, Charlottetown, was found dead at the house of Michael Power on Saturday about 4 a. m. He left his own home, saying he couldn't sleep and wanted to get a smoke. He went to Power's, roused him up, chatted a while, then returned a verdict of death from natural causes. The doctor testified that it might be caused by apoplexy, epilepsy or alcoholic poisoning, McQuaid occasionally going on a spree. He had some liquor in him when he called at Power's.

A telegram was received Thursday from Boston aunouncing the accidental death of George Hughson, youngest son of Mrs. Harriet, Widow of George Hughson, 44 Charles street. The despatch was sent to Dr. McIntyre, Douglas avenue, the family physician, together with a request that he should break the news to Mrs. Hughson. It will readily be believed that she was almost overcome with the shock of the sad intelligence.
