W. course as the wind would allow. At 4 a. m. on the 24th, the wind having hauled well to the westward, made more sail and tacked ship, being at that time well clear of the Isaac Light. At 5.20 a. m., observing the water was discolored caused the lead to be hove and found we were in five fathoms of water; hove the helm hard down, brought the ship around and filled away, but before she could have run more than her own length, she brought, up amidships on a have run more than her own length she brought up amidships on a reef which I found to be Ginger Bread reef which I found to be Ginger Bread Ground. Had plenty of water at the sem and stern. The reef is just on the ge of soundings. Did not succeed in Jating her until we had thrown overboard the whole of our deck load. Then she went ashore, filled away, and almost immediately struck in another place, chafed for awhile and struck heavier.

Thomas Mullin, 60 years of age, was found drunk on Water st.; fined $4.

James McCann found wandering about chafed for awhile and struck heavier. Fortunately there was no sea. At 2 p.m. she began to leak. Pumps at work and men throwing over cargo from under deck. At 4 p.m. she went off, ran along the reef to deeper water, and crossed it with 3 feet of water in the ship's hold. At 6 p.m. we found the water gaining, and squared away for Nassau. At that port next day, the 28th, there being then 5 feet of water in the hold. Having noted protest and held a survey took on board 8 more men and an extra pump to keep her free, and sailed for Havana on the 29th, arriving at that port not be 29th, arriving at that port on the 2nd inst. As soon as the cargo is discharged the vessel will be placed in dock to have her bottom examined, and damages repaired.
