

INTRODUCTORY...

WE ASK the public to consider carefully our report of the year's work, and if the results indicate that we are warranted in our belief that the field of work among young women is one of great usefulness, and worthy of financial aid, we shall be pleased to receive practical evidences of their sympathy by contributions sent to the "Y" Rooms, 276½ Dundas Street. . . . .