RUBBERS FOR LITTLE FEET

YOU can get the same sturdy wear—the same guaranteed quality—for the Children, that you have found so satisfactory in your own rubbers.

"The best rubbers that can be made" is the standard of the Dominion Rubber System. And this applies to ALL rubbers bearing the Trademarks of the Dominion Rubber System.

Children's rubbers are made with the same care, of the same high-grade materials that give such easy comfort, such long wear, in the rubbers for men and women.

This superior quality is necessary in Children's rubbers because they need the extra protection which good rubbers give on wet days; and they need the extra quality to withstand the rougher usage which most children give to all footwear.

Ask for these better rubbers by name:

"Jacques Cartier" "Merchants" "Maple Leaf"
"Granby" "Dominion" "Daisy"

Get the little feet properly fitted. It means more than comfort—it means longer wear, both for shoes and rubbers.

The Trademarks are your guarantee of sturdy, reliable quality and a perfect fit for every shoe for every member of the family.

A Broken Wedding Ring

By Bertha M. Clay

"Why, what has it to do with me?" asked Sir Basil.

"I—I know some one," stammered the general—"some one who cares for you in that way, whose life is wrapped up, so to speak, in yours."

"In mine?" cried Sir Basil. "You must be mistaken, general."

"I am not, indeed. Think of all the people you know, and see if you cannot find some clue."

"I am sure I cannot," said Sir Basil, quickly. "I have not mixed much in ladies' society, and of those I know, I cannot imagine one caring much for me."

"Yet there is one," declared the general, slowly. "What the nondescript she is to the flowers, you are to her. She loves you as I believe very few women have the power of loving."

"How do you know?" cried Sir Basil, in astonishment.

"I found it out by accident. I would have given a great deal not to have known it. I have never been happy since."

Sir Basil grew pale and agitated.

"How strange that you should know that! Are you quite sure? Is there no mistake?"

"None. I could almost say I wish there was. I assure you that I have been most unhappy ever since I made the discovery. I have not known what to do. I honestly believe that in time the girl will die if her love remains unrequited. It seemed to me that in keeping her secret I was almost helping to kill her; in telling it Heaven only knows what other harm I may do! If I did not believe it to be a case of life and death, I would not stir in the matter. Even now, far as I have gone, unless you wish it, I will not mention the name."

"I do not know what to say," declared Sir Basil, deeply agitated. That any one loved him so deeply touched him.

"Think over it," continued the general. "You are heart-whole and fancy-free; why not make this girl happy? If you loved any one else, it would be a different matter; but you do not."

"No, I do not," said Sir Basil, slowly.

And then for some minutes there was silence between them. It was the expression on the general's face that made Sir Basil speak at last.

"Tell me who it is," he said abruptly; "I should prefer to know."

"Heaven grant that I am doing right!" said the general. "I would give my life for her, because I love her so; but, if I do her any injury while seeking only to do her good, I shall never forgive myself."

"Tell me," said Sir Basil. "I—I dare not guess."

"Yes, I will tell you," replied the elder man, solemnly. "Heaven grant that I am acting wisely! It is my niece and adopted daughter who loves you."

"Your niece? Miss Hatton?" cried Sir Basil. "You cannot surely mean it. Why, the duchess told me that she had had more offers of marriage than any woman in England!"

"So she has," said the general. "And you say this proud, beautiful girl loves me! It seems incredible!"

"She loves you with all her heart," replied the general, "and you are fancy-free. Let me mention this—she is true, gifted, generous; she has some of the noblest qualities of a woman; she will be one of the wealthiest heiresses in England. Think over it, Sir Basil. She would be so happy poor child, while I—I cannot tell you what it would do me—I love her so dearly, and she is so unhappy."

"Are you quite sure that there is no mistake?" asked Sir Basil. "Your niece could aspire to any position—socially speaking, I should be no match for her."

"There is only this matter for consideration," said the general—"she loves you. Ah, if you had seen her tears!"

years ago an ulcer appeared on my ankle," writes Mrs. Jeffrey, of Methuen, Mass. "In spite of all the remedies I used, it spread to my knee, and developed into an open sore. I had medical treatment for twenty-five years, but only got temporary relief. The pain I suffered was terrible, and for years I was unable to leave the house."

"One day I saw in a newspaper an account of a had ulcer having been cured by Zam-Buk. Although I was skeptical, now, of anything curing me—having tried so many remedies in vain—I decided to give Zam-Buk a trial. I applied the balm freely every day and to my delight the sore soon showed some improvement. Gradually the inflammation was drawn out, the pain was ended, and, after thirty years of suffering, I realized I was on the road to recovery. With perseverance, the awful sore was finally completely healed, and, although that was three years ago, there has not been the slightest trace of the ulcer returning."

Zam-Buk is the best remedy, also, for eczema, boils, pimples, blood-poisoning, piles, burns, scalds and cuts. All dealers, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

Gray Hair Becomes Dark and Beautiful

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite
Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur Cr.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which was messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Every body uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Seems Everyone Is Anxious To Try It

Recent discovery of ether compound that dries up corns so that they lift out.

Good news spreads rapidly and drug gists here are kept busy dispensing freeone the recent discovery of a Cincinnati man which is said to loosen any corn so it lifts out with the finger. A quarter of an ounce costs very little at any pharmacy but is said to be sufficient to rid one's feet on every hard or soft corn or callus.

You apply just a few drops on the tender, aching corn and instantly the soreness is relieved and soon the corn is so shrivelled that it lifts out without pain. It is a sticky substance which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the adjoining tissue.

This discovery will prevent thousands of deaths annually from lock-jaw and infection heretofore resulting from the suicidal habit of cutting corns.
