stopping the Supplies, at the commencement of the session, which was defeated by an immense majority. The petition presented by this infamous character, Sharman Crawford, to bich we allude, was stated by him to have been signed by two housand inhabitants of Bolton,—aod what upon earth do our readers imagine was its object? We shall, we feel, hardly be believed when we say, that it prayed the Imperial Parliament to pass an Act, which should provide that the function of PUB-LIC HANGMAN should, in future, be performed by-CLERGY-MEN OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND !!! We do not know on whom of all the parties concerned in this monstrous piece of blasphemy and profanity, first to discharge the vials of our in-dignation. We think that the two thousand sectarian fanaies, plague-spotted with the leprosy of higotry, are bad enough ; but what can be said of him who would deliberately receive so infamous a document, and insult every member of the Estab-lished Church in Her Majesty's dominions by presenting it to the Imperial Parliament and recommending its adoption.— This is another proof of the inveterate hostility which animates sectaries against the Church, and shows how deeply seated, and widely spread the widely spread the spirit of enmity and hatred must be, when, in a town like Bolton, two thousand infuriate bigots could be found to append their names to so vile a petition as this. We cannot but regret to see this spirit of persecution against the Church extending itself so much. A PERSECUTED CHURCH, HOWEVER, ALWAYS FLOURISHES, AND THE ENMITY OF ITS ports to about 807,000.
