

said Colony may be so divided as aforesaid; and each of the said Circuit Courts shall be holden once at least in each Year by the said Chief Judge, or by One of the said Assistant Judges of the said Supreme Court of Newfoundland, at such Times, and at such One or more Place or Places within each of the said Districts, as the Governor or Acting Governor for the Time being of Newfoundland shall from Time to Time direct and appoint.

Circuit Courts to be Courts of Record, exercising the same Jurisdiction as the Supreme Court, except in the Cases of Treason and Felonies not within Benefit of Clergy, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the said Circuit Courts shall be respectively Courts of Record, and shall, within the District in which it may be holden, have and exercise all such and the same Jurisdiction, Powers, and Authority, as is hereby vested in the said Supreme Court of Newfoundland throughout the whole of the said Colony; saving and excepting the trying and determining of Treasons, or Misprisions of Treason, and Felonies not within the Benefit of Clergy, and the hearing or determining of any Information, Suit, or Action, for the Breach or Violation of any Act of Parliament relating to the Trade and Revenue of the British Colonies in America; all which said Crimes and Offences, Informations, Suits, and Actions, shall be tried, enquired of, heard, and determined in the said Supreme Court of Newfoundland, and not elsewhere within the said Colony.

Crimes cognizable in Circuit Courts and Civil Actions to be tried by Jury according to the Law of England.

X. And be it further enacted, That all Crimes and Misdemeanors, cognizable in the said Circuit Courts, and all Issues of Fact which may be joined between the Parties in any Civil Action, depending in the said Circuit Courts, shall be enquired of, heard, and determined by the said Circuit Judge, and a Jury of Twelve Men, according to the Rules and Course of the Law of England, as far as the Situation and Circumstances of the said Colony will permit.

But where a Jury shall not be formed, Trials for Crimes shall be had by the Circuit Judge and Three Assessors, being Justices of Peace, and nominated by the Governor.

Such Assessors liable to be challenged.

XI. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That if upon the Trial of any Crimes or Misdemeanors before any of the said Circuit Courts, Twelve good and lawful Men shall not appear to form a Jury, then and in all such Cases such Trial shall be had by the Circuit Judge and Three Assessors, being Justices of the Peace in and for the said Colony, or for some District thereof; and the said Justices shall be nominated from Time to Time to serve as such Assessors as aforesaid by the Governor or Acting Governor for the Time being of the said Colony, and shall severally be liable to be challenged or objected to upon the special Ground of direct Interest or Affection, to be specified in open Court at the Time of Challenge; and in case of such Challenge or Objection being allowed by the Judge of the said Circuit Court, the Justice of the Peace so challenged or objected to shall be succeeded by another such Justice of the Peace, who shall in like Manner be nominated by the Governor or Acting Governor for the Time being as aforesaid, and be liable in the same Manner to Challenge or Objection, until Three such Justices of the Peace shall appear duly qualified for the Trial of any Offender in the said Circuit Courts respectively; and the said Justices of the Peace shall thereupon severally take and repeat in open Court the same Oath as is taken by Petit Jurors impannelled for the Trial of any Crime or Misdemeanor in a Court of Record in England; and the Judges of the said Circuit Courts respectively shall, together with the
