[In the 53d George III. An Act was passed (Cap. 17,) to amend and continue the preceding Acts as follows.]

*53, Geo. III
Cap. 17*

BE it enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That the said Act, passed in the forty-eighth year of his present Majesty's reign, entitled, An Act to provide for the accommodation and billeting of His Majesty's Troops or of the Militia when on their march from one part of the Province to another, except such part thereof as is amended by this Act; and the said Act passed in the fifty-first year of his said Majesty's reign, in amendment thereof—be, and the same is hereby, continued until the fifteenth day of March, which will be in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and from thence until the end of the next Session of the General Assembly, and no longer.

continued*

II. And be it further enacted, That instead of one shilling allowed by the said Act to the Innkeepers for each meal furnished by them to Soldiers when on their march, there shall be allowed and paid fifteen pence for each meal which shall be by them furnished to Soldiers, under the provisions of the said Act, of which this is an amendment, and no more, any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.
