

I believe - quite so
sincerely rejoiced as I - But now there is the other side of the shield to look at and think of -
and there is a heavy -
a very heavy responsibility on your shoulders -

You must not be discouraged though - it is a man's part to take responsibility - and to face bravely whatever the future brings -

I have confidence in you - every confidence - and all your friends have - and you have but to go on, facing each day the duties of that day - and in each
doing your best - that is all any man can ever do.

I think of only one thing to say - as a practical thing - I think there is nobody available at the present time that

Toronto 37192
16th Sept: 1919
Dear King -

Many times during the last three weeks your kind letters to my wife and home - and your immediate telegram of sympathy -
have been in my thoughts and I have wanted to write something to you by way of answer - but there seems nothing I can say that would express at all
what I feel -

I can only say that I thank you - and I am grateful - I was deeply touched by your kindness and to know that you were thinking of me -
it has been a very heavy blow - I cannot truly say it has been -
it still is - and cannot help but be with me
always - but I try to think of other things