

Provisions of Law re Federal Administration.

Each department has a pol. head, there is also a permanent deputy non-political head. The head of the department is the Minister of Crown, who is responsible then comes deputy, Chief clerks 2nd class clerks messengers & other employees. His appointments are regulated by civil service act. The deputy head of each department is appointed by letters patent of Gov. Gen. holds his office during pleasure. When a deputy minister is removed from office the fact must be reported with the reason within 15 days after session. The deputy minister is to oversee & direct work of department of which he is deputy. The exams are 2 classes

(1) Qualifying (2) Promotional

The qualifying exam. relate to certain subjects & are not competitive as the Promotional exams refer to preparation of abstracts &c. Official composition