

PAGE BLURRED /
PAGE PARBOUILLEE

C164597

87
6

And then came the banner Province -- this great old Province of Ontario.

I saw the Capital Hill of Ottawa -- little dreaming then -- as an immigrant boy -- that I would be privileged to be speaking here today -- in our free and unfettered Parliament.

And I thought of the history of Quebec -- Galt -- Goderich -- of York --
of Oshawa -- and of many other places to which men of my race and blood had gone.

And -- as I went on westward -- I felt that Ontario had given us a Bill of Rights.

87