

(2) Public -

Public significance - importance of event, as of centenary, in national life of Canada;

International significance -

Events which took place at Prescott century ago involved people of U.S. -

Their interest is evinced by presence of Hon. Allen Newell, N.Y.
Assemblyman; Mr. Simmons, as representative of U.S. Govt., and so many others from neighbouring country;

Welcome to them - as to countless of their countrymen who come as friendly visitors to Canada - visiting neighbours;

Interest also in presence of Mr.
Pavlica, Polish Consul General at Ottawa, and in unveiling of bronze tablet in memory of General von Schouls and others of his compatriots who participated in battle of the Windmills;
