

M. F. EAGAR,
DISPENSING CHEMIST, &c.,

151 Victoria Buildings, Hollis Street,

(OPPOSITE THE CLUB HOUSE)

Constantly on hand, a supply of the

Purest English Medicines and Chemicals,

BRUSHES & TOILET ARTICLES.

Prescriptions PERSONALLY attended to.

Swedish Leeches always in stock.

 MEDICINE CHESTS refitted on the shortest notice.

HUNTER & WRIGHT,
Brass-Founders
And Finishers,

88 Barrington Street, North of Chalmer's Church.

From 25 years' experience in the first shops of the trade in Great Britain and the United States, Messrs. H. & W. offer to make and repair, in the best and cheapest manner, all kind of PLUMBER'S WORK, including Brass Faucets, Steam and Gas Cocks, Oil Cups, Life and Force Pumps, &c.; Brass and Composition Castings made of the best material.

 Orders from the country will be promptly attended to.

ROBERT PEDWELL,

(FROM ENGLAND)

BOOT and SHOEMAKER,

51 BIRMINGHAM STREET,

Ladies', Gentlemen's, and Children's BOOTS made to order.

Families waited on at their residence for measurement.

 Particular attention paid to the making of Lasts to fit the feet.