

A CAST-IRON DOME

This interior view of the dome and radiator of the DOWN DRAFT FURNACE shows that the heat from the fire rises into the cast-iron dome, is partly radiated into the inner warm-air space and the balance carried into the radiator which encircles the dome. From it the heat is discharged into the two warm-air spaces as shown.

When the smoke reaches the smoke pipe all the heat has been extracted. The hot air rises to the top of the furnace to the hot-air pipes and is then conveyed to the rooms. To burn wood the furnace is equipped by inserting through the front door the wood grate, which rests on the coal grate.

Fire door is 12 1/2 x 16, which will admit large, rough wood you otherwise cannot dispose of.

The CAREY Idea: ONE Roof is Enough

DON'T YOU THINK one roof ought to be enough for any building? Charles Lexow, of Mitchell, Ill., recently became a convert to this Carey Idea. In 20 years or so, doubtless he will pay the sort of tribute to Carey's Roofing that H. L. Bonta, of Harrodsburg, Mercer Co., Ky., does, when he wrote us, April 23rd last:—"Some 15 or 18 years ago, I bought Carey's Roofing to cover a large barn. The Roofing is still doing good service."

CAREY'S FLEXIBLE CEMENT ROOFING

is fire-resisting, wind and waterproof; will not Rot, Rust, Melt, Break or Dry Out. It is equally adapted to flat or steep surfaces; is easily laid on new buildings or over leaky shingles or metal roofs, with but knife and hammer as tools.

CAREY'S ROOFING is composed of the highest grade of woolen felt of our own manufacture, strong East Indian burlap and our own highly tempered asphalt cement compound, all compressed into compact, always flexible sheets. The Carey Patent Lap covers and permanently protects nail-heads.

Sold and shipped direct from our warehouses, conveniently located. Write for sample and our ROOF-BOOK—both FREE.
