Canada in War Paint

By CAPT. RALPH W. BELL

This is a purely Canadian war book written by a Toronto man who enlisted in Canada's First Battalion as a private. Every chapter bristles with humour—sometimes grim—but always true to life. It is a book that every Canadian should read—the best book of its kind yet published.

$1.00 net; postage, 10c.

Bilingual Schools in Canada

By PROFESSOR C. B. SISSONS

The purpose of the book is threefold—first to trace the little understood history of the French and German Schools in Ontario in relation to the educational system; secondly to show how the complicated language situation in the Western Provinces has been dealt with, and thirdly, to correlate the bilingual problem East and West, and to suggest the lines along which a solution must proceed.

Cloth, $1.35 net; postage, 10c.

Canada, The Spellbinder

A Charming Volume, beautifully illustrated (cloth, gilt, 322 pages).
Written from an American's point of view by that great traveller and observer

LILIAN WHITING

Author of the "Florence of Landor",
"Italy the Magic Land", "The Lure of London", "Paris the Beautiful", "Athens, the Violet crowned" (first, second and third series), "Boston Days", etc., etc

Cloth, $2.00 net; postage, 12c

Italy at War

With Many Illustrations
By HERBERT VIVIAN

In this volume the author gives us his impressions and adventures while tramping about Italy in war time.

Many of the illustrations are from photographs specially given by the Italian Government for this book.

Cloth, $1.50; postage, 12c.

The Shadow-Line

By JOSEPH CONRAD

The Shadow-Line is a Far-Eastern story of a haunted ship told in Conrad's best style in which every sentence tells. Before long, the literary question of the hour will be "Why did the ship in THE SHADOW-LINE have such difficulty in passing Latitude 8° 20'?"

Cloth Bound, $1.50 net; postage, 10c.
